EDWARD DUNIGAN & BROTHER

Return their sincere thanks to the Archbishops and Bishops who have so kindly and promptly furnished them with returns of their dioceses.

PREFACE.

The Publishers present this first yearly volume rather as an essay than as a finished work. It was necessary, to supply a deficiency, that the Almanac should be got out with all possible celerity, and it was not till after Christmas that, finding no house disposed to take it up, they began their preparations.

The compiler had made no preparation for the task imposed suddenly upon him. California and New Mexico could not be heard from, and returns from Baltimore, Cleveland, and Saut St. Mary's, failed to reach him. The printers were unused to the work, and ingeniously added difficulties, such as p. 70 shows, where they absurdly, in making up, introduced the words "Diocese of" before "Maryland." The errata are, therefore, larger than they should be; yet with all its faults the publishers ask a kindly treatment as they have done their best to supply a want; and have actually collected material, arranged, and published the work in less than six weeks.

To meet wishes heretofore expressed, they have, where possible, eschewed statistics; and have arranged the dioceses by provinces, in geographical order, placing the diocese of the Archbishop first. All the dioceses are arranged on the same plan—the towns being in alphabetical order, to facilitate reference, and the names of the clergy in italics.

They have this year introduced into the Almanac the Clergy of the British Provinces, and hope to make it in future still more generally useful.

They have made the Almanac an advertising medium; but there is no alternative. Every copy costs more for printing and paper than it sells for; and the advertisements alone enable the publisher to suffer such a moderate loss as he can be reasonably expected to bear.

COLOR OF VESTMENTS WORN IN THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS.

White is used on the festivals of our Lord, of the B. Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Finding and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember Days, and Rogation Days, when the office is of them.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday exclusively, when the office is of the Sunday; but in the Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead; which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a double, except from Palm Sunday to Low Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE, D. C.

In the year 1785, several gentlemen—the principal of whom was the Rev. JOHN CARROLL, afterwards the first Archbishop of Baltimore—formed a design of building "An Academy, at Georgetown, Potomac River, Maryland." In 1789 the first house was built; in 1792 the schools commenced, and in 1798 we find it "The College of Georgetown, Potomac River, State of Maryland." In May, 1815, Congress raised it to the rank of an University.

In May, 1851, "The Medical-Department of Georgetown College" was opened in Washington City, D. C.

The College is situated on the northern bank of the Potomac, and commands a full view of Georgetown, Washington, the Potomac, and a great part of the District of Columbia. Its situation is peculiarly healthy.

The academic year commences on the first Monday of September and ends about the middle of July. The collegiate course of studies occupies, generally, seven years, inclusive of the preparatory classes, which last three years, unless the proficiency of the student authorize an abbreviation of the term.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.—Experience has proved to us the necessity of separating the very young students from the seniors. Arrangements have accordingly been made to effect this, and afford the tender youth committed to our care such attention as their age requires. A large and spacious building has just been completed, to be used exclusively for the accommodation of the younger students. Their dormitory, play-grounds, study-hall, class-rooms, &c., &c., will be entirely distinct from those of the others, and officers especially assigned will attend them in their pastimes, and preside over their studies.

Very Rev. CHARLES H. STONESTREET, S. J., Provincial of Maryland, resides in the College.

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE,

Perry County, Ohio.

This Institution, conducted by the Fathers of the Order of St. Dominic, was for the first time opened for the reception of students in September, 1851. A large, new and beautiful College edifice has since been erected, and is now occupied, which, independently of the buildings hitherto in use, will afford ample accommodations for at least 150 boarders.

The College has lately been chartered with the power of conferring the usual Honors and Degrees, granted to Universities and Colleges.

The College grounds are extensive, consisting of about 400 acres, and the locality one of the most healthy in the United States, affording every facility and inducement for the promotion of studious habits, and the enjoyment of healthful exercise. The system of education comprises the various branches of the arts and sciences usually taught in similar institutions in this country.

A mild and paternal system of government, as far as may be compatible with the strictest attention to established discipline, will always be observed. The moral and intellectual improvement of the pupils, and also their domestic comfort, will be attended to with the utmost solicitude;—their diet will be wholesome and abundant. No student will be allowed to go beyond the College grounds, unless accompanied by one of the Professors or Tutors.

The collegiate year will consist of two sessions of five months each; the first commencing on the first Monday of September of each year, and ending on the Saturday after the first Monday of February; and the second beginning on the second Monday of February, and closing with the public exhibition some time in the beginning of July.

NOTRE DAME DU LAC UNIVERSITY,

Indiana.

(CHARTERED, 1844.)

This Institution, favorably known to the public for the last thirteen years, is now able to offer greater inducements than ever before. In consequence of recent improvements, the College buildings can accommodate two hundred and fifty boarders, and a more healthy and delightful location cannot be found. It is situated near South Bend, on the Michigan S. R. R., within a few hours' travel of all our principal cities.

The College edifice is of brick, four and a half stories high, and not inferior in point of style or structure to any of the Colleges in the United States. It is beautifully situated on the verge of two picturesque lakes, which afford the students choice fishing-grounds in summer, and almost uninterrupted skating during winter. The rooms are spacious, well ventilated, and supplied with ample furniture.

The charge of the Infirmary is intrusted to Sisters, similar in character to the Sisters of Charity, who nurse the sick with the most tender and devoted care.

The disciplinary government is mild, yet sufficiently energetic to preserve that good order so essential to the well-being of the Institution. The morals and general deportment of the pupils are watched over with the greatest assiduity and solicitude, and their comfort and personal habits receive the same attention as if they were members of the most refined family. In their daily recreations they are always accompanied by a tutor. All books in their possession are subject to the inspection of the Prefect of Studies, and none can be circulated without his approval. Only conciliatory means of correction are used; but should the student prove insensible to these, he is promptly dismissed from the College.

The Faculty is composed of the Priests of the Holy Cross. A member of the Society is annually sent to France, to secure additional means of imparting efficiency to the Institution. The course of education embraces all the branches usually comprised in a College course, besides advantages for the acquisition of the Modern Languages, Music, and the Fine Arts, which are not ordinarily afforded in American schools. The religion professed in the Institution is the Catholic; but in the reception of pupils no distinction of creed is made, and there is no interference with the principles of non-Catholics. Good order, however, requires that all should conform with decorum to the usages of public worship. Catholic parents may rest assured that the most zealous care will be exercised over their children in respect to frequent and regular compliance with their religious duties, and no effort will be spared to instruct them fully in the principles and obligations of their holy religion.

Clothes, Linen, etc., are also furnished by the College, at current prices, but an equivalent sum must be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer.

The annual commencement and distribution of premiums takes place on the last Wednesday of June, when young gentlemen who have accomplished the prescribed course of study may receive their first degree in the liberal arts, which the Institution, having been incorporated as a University by the Legislature of Indiana, is empowered to confer. The degree of A. M. will be granted to the Alumni of the University, on their exhibiting satisfactory evidence to the Faculty that they have devoted three full years to classical and literary pursuits after leaving College.

No boarder will be received for a shorter period than five months, and no deduction for absence, except in case of sickness or dismission.

Examinations are held at the end of every quarter, and a report of the health and progress of students is forwarded semi-annually to parents and guardians. Public examinations take place before each annual commencement.

The scholastic year begins on the first Tuesday of September, when undergraduates are expected to be present. Students may be received at any time during the session, but they would consult interest and comfort by entering at the beginning of a term.

Each pupil must be provided with six shirts, six pair of stockings, six pocket-handkerchiefs, six towels, a knife and fork, a table and tea spoon, a hat and cap, two suits of clothes, an overcoat, a pair of shoes and a pair of boots for winter, three suits of clothing and two pair of shoes for summer.

Pocket money is not allowed, except as deposited in the hands of the Treasurer, and subject to his discretionary application.

When parents wish to have their children sent home, they must give timely notice, settle all accounts, and supply means to defray all travelling expenses.

N. B. There is an additional charge of $20 00 for board and washing during vacation.

To all and each, who may see these presents, perpetual health in the Lord:

Having had laid before us, by Messrs. STANDARD CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS.

St. Joseph's Manual. Printed with large type, on fine paper, containing 696 pages, 18mo. The merits of this book, among the many which have been published as well in Europe as America, are its peculiar adaptation to the wants of families or individuals, for public as well as private devotion; for those who live remote from Churches, and cannot be present at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Sundays and Holidays, as for those who enjoy greater privileges. It may be styled a volume of prayer and religious instruction, since it not only contains devotions, public and private, adapted to the wants of the many, and for all seasons and occasions of the ecclesiastical year, but is also explanatory and instructive upon many points where information is frequently sought after. The care and attention which have been given to the distribution of its varied contents will be equally appreciated by those who have felt the importance of system and arrangement in this particular. A NEW AND COMPLETE PRAYER BOOK,

Containing copious Extracts from the Writings of St. FRANCIS DE SALES, referring to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Spiritual Direction, Holy Communion, the Sanctification of the Week, and other subjects, comprising

MUCH THAT HAS NEVER BEFORE APPEARED IN ENGLISH.

Just published, in a beautiful 18*mo. volume, printed from large type, on fine paper, embellished with Fine Engravings—in various Bindings, from* $1 to $10 per copy.

THE VISITATION MANUAL:

A COLLECTION OF PRAYERS AND INSTRUCTIONS,

Compiled according to the Spiritual Directory and Spirit of St. FRANCIS DE SALES, Founder of the Religious Order of the Visitation of the B. Virgin Mary.

The publishers deem it unnecessary to enter into details, or to enlarge on the peculiar merits of this Prayer Book. They refer with pleasure to the annexed APPROVAL and RECOMMENDATION of the MOST REV. ARCHBISHOP OF BALTIMORE, which they feel will be a sufficient guarantee for its contents.

The New Prayer Book, called "THE VISITATION MANUAL," compiled by some ladies of the Convent of the Visitation in this city, and revised by two learned clergymen, Examiners of books of this diocese, and now published by Messrs. John Murphy & Co., is approved of by me, and recommended to the faithful of my charge. Given under my hand at Baltimore this 14th day of November, 1857.

✠ FRANCIS PATRICK,
Archbishop of Baltimore.

The publishers respectfully solicit attention to the style in which this work is issued. It is printed in a superior manner on substantial paper of a fine texture; the Prayers at Mass, and other Devotions most generally used, are printed from a large, clear, and bold type, and throughout the entire work great care has been taken in the selection of the type, with the view of rendering it pleasing and agreeable to the eye. These features, combined with its general arrangement and contents, they trust will render this book a favorite with the Catholics of this country.

☞ The Catholic Miscellany, in noticing this New Manual says: "The Visitation Manual seems to us one of the best Prayer Books issued for a long time. It contains every thing needed for Catholic devotion; suitable prayers for morning and evening, for Mass and the Holy Sacraments—in a word, for all stated times, or casual circumstances that may arise in the life of a Christian. That it contains no arbitrary forms of prayer, introduced without the sanction of the Church, or in opposition to her liturgical forms, is more than abundantly vouched for by the approval and recommendation with which it has been honored by the learned and venerable Archbishop of Baltimore, whose exactness in such matters is universally known. A feature of the book has pleased us in an especial manner, viz.: the liturgical distribution, if we may so call it, of the devotions which it contains for the chief mysteries of our Lord and his Holy Mother, for the festivals of the principal Saints. The Messrs. Murphy have brought out this handsome book of near 700 pages in a most creditable style. The type is bold and distinct, and especially in those portions of the Manual which are calculated for daily use. The publishers have issued copies in every variety of binding, and we know of no book more suitable for a holiday present. We hope that the Manual will meet with the success it deserves."

☞ The New Orleans Catholic Standard says: "The distinguishing feature of this new book of devotion is, that its forms of prayer are exclusively confined to those that have received the sanction of the Church. In other particulars it compares favorably with the popular and elegant prayer books issued from the American Catholic Press. Its type is large and distinct; it is neatly and accurately printed, on fine white paper, and is offered the public in every variety of binding. Among its other recommendations are its copious extracts from the ever acceptable writings of St. Francis of Sales. It has also a complete index. In a word, it appears to offer to the faithful every thing needed for Catholic devotion."

☞ The Boston Pilot says: "We are glad to see that the suggestions made in a late article of Brownson's Review have been followed in the compilation of this book. The book is printed in an elegant style, and the clear, large type must offer great inducement to old people and weak eyes. We would respectfully suggest to directors of sodalities and confraternities to introduce this Manual among the fraternities. It is the very thing for them."

☞ Early orders from the Trade, Religious Institutions, the Rev. Clergy, and others (to whom the usual discount will be made when purchased in quantities), are respectfully solicited.

A COLLECTION OF INDULGENCED PRAYERS.

By Ambrose St. John, of the Oratory.

"THIS is a Book of Prayers which has the highest sanction of the Church, and the use of which is not only authorized but privileged in the highest degree, so as to entitle it to be called emphatically 'The Church Prayer Book of Private Devotion,' as the Missal and Breviary are her books of public devotion.

"The translation is excellent, and at the beginning of the Book is an Approbation of the Pope, granting to the faithful who use it the same Indulgences as are annexed to the Original Roman editions."

FROM THE SECOND REVISED EDITION.

ROME—Its Ruler, and its Institutions.

By JOHN FRANCIS MAGUIRE, M. P.

At the earnest request of several of the clergy and laity, we have concluded to publish this most important work. To the Catholic it is invaluable, and it is just the book for those outside the Church. All will be satisfied with what the Church has done and is doing for the spiritual as well as temporal welfare of man.

It is not necessary to say anything further, when the highest authority in the Church has spoken. We append the following :—

Mr. Maguire has been honored with a letter from his Holiness, of which the following is a translation.

"Well-beloved Son ; Health and Apostolical Benediction—We have lately received your most dutiful letter, dated the 17th day of November last, in which you have been pleased to present to Us a work composed by you in the English language, and published this year in London, with the title, 'Rome, its Ruler, and its Institutions.' Of this work we have been unable to enjoy the perusal, owing to our extremely imperfect acquaintance with the language in which it is written. Yet, from the statement of persons of the highest character for competency and trustworthiness, who have perused the same work, We learn with peculiar satisfaction that it contains many evidences of your singular devotedness, attachment, and reverence to Us, and towards this Holy See ; a circumstance which could not fail to be most gratifying to Our feelings. Therefore, while bestowing Our heartfelt recommendation on this noble expression of your sentiments to Us, We return you thanks for the gift ; and, as a testimony of Our fatherly love towards you, We impart to you affectionately from Our heart the Apostolic Benediction.

Given at Rome, at St. Peter's, the 14th day of December, 1857. in the twelfth year of Our Pontificate."

PIUS IX.

LONDON, August 28, 1857.

"MY DEAR SIR :—

According to your desire, I have delayed acknowledging the receipt of your 'Rome' till I had read it through. This I have now done, taking it up at every leisure moment with renewed pleasure, till I had finished it. Having myself had to go over a great part of the ground, whether personally or by the study of documents, I think I am qualified to form a just judgment of the work. It is most truthful, accurate, and unexaggerated picture of the Holy Father, of his great works, and of his most noble and amiable character, drawn with freshness, elegance and vigor—with admiration, and even, if you please, enthusiasm ; but not greater than is shared by every one who has drawn near the person of the Holy Father. There is not a trait in your portrait which I do not fully recognize ; not an action or a speech which I could not easily imagine to have been performed or spoken in my presence—so like are they to what I have myself seen and heard. In estimating what has been done during the late years of quiet rule for the prosperity of the Pontifical States. I think you have prudently kept rather below than gone above what might have been stated. The result will be more manifest in time—to the confusion, one may hope, of those who, dishonestly or ignorantly misrepresent every measure of the Sovereign Pontiff. I feel sure that your work is calculated to do much good wherever it is read ; and I cannot help hoping that the very novelty of daring to speak the bold truth, the abundance of information which is communicated, and the eloquence of the style, will obtain for your book all the popularity which it deserves. I need not say that by this work you have nailed your colors to the mast, and become the Pope's champion, in the House as well as out of it ; and I am sure you Will not allow him to be vilified by any one, however lofty. I am ever, my dear sir,

Your affectionate servant in Christ,

John Francis Maguire, Esq., M. P." N. CARD. WISEMAN.

In presenting to the American public, a first edition of the Works of Gerald Griffin, the Publishers may remark that it will be found to be the only complete one. Neither in the London nor Dublin editions, could the Publishers include the historical novel of "The Invasion," and the celebrated tragedy of "Gysippus." As we are not subject to any restriction arising from the British copyright, we have included the former with the prose, and the latter with the poetical works of the Author.

We are also indebted to near relatives of Mr. Griffin, residing in this country, for an original contribution to this edition; which will be found gratefully acknowledged in the proper place.

As the life of the Author forms the subject of one entire volume, we need say little here, of the uncommon interest his name continues to excite. Unlike the majority of writers of fiction, his reputation has widely expanded since his death. In 1840, when he was laid in his grave, at the early age of seven and thirty, not one person knew the loss a pure literature had sustained, for fifty who now join veneration for his virtues, to admiration for his various and delightful talents. The goodness of his heart, the purity of his life, the combined humor and pathos of his writings, all promise longevity of reputation to Gerald Griffin.

"He had kept
The whiteness of his soul, and so men o'er him wept."

He united all the simplicity and cordiality of Oliver Goldsmith to much of the fiery energy and manly zeal of Robert Burns. His life does not disappoint the reader, who turns from the works to their author; it is, indeed, the most delightful and harmonious of all his works. From his childish sports and stories by the Shannon until his solemn and enviable death beside "the pleasant waters" of the Lee, a golden thread of rectitude runs through all his actions. A literary adventurer in London at nineteen, with a Spanish tragedy for his sole capital, famous at thirty, a religious five years later, a tenant of the Christian Brothers' Cemetery at thirty-seven—the main story of his life is soon told. Over its details, we are confident, many a reader will fondly linger, and often return to contemplate so strange and so beautiful a picture. Out of his secret heart they will find sentiments issuing not unworthy of St. Frances de Sales, while from his brain have sprung creations of character which might have been proudly fathered by Walter Scott.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF GERALD GRIFFIN.—We welcome this new and complete edition of the works of Gerald Griffin, now in the course of publication by the Messrs. Sadlier & Co. We read The Collegians, when it was first published, with a pleasure we have never forgotten, and which we have found increased at every repeated perusal. Ireland has produced many geniuses, but rarely one, upon the whole, superior to Gerald Griffin. When we have his life, and the publication of the edition is completed, we shall endeavor to render our tribute of gratitude to the memory of the gifted author.—[Brownson's Review.

It is not surprising that comparatively little is known in this country, save among the more intelligent American citizens from the "Emerald Isle," of Gerald Griffin, when we consider that he was born in the beginning of the present century, and closed his brief, but really bright and brilliant, career of authorship at the early age of 37. He however achieved a reputation as a writer of no ordinary power, and as has been remarked, united all the simplicity and cordiality of Oliver Goldsmith, to much of the fiery energy and manly zeal of Robert Burns. We have now before us four volumes, the commencement of a complete edition of his works, embracing the "Collegians," and the first series of his "Munster Tales." The nationality of these tales, and the genius of the author in depicting the mingled levity and pathos of Irish character, have rendered them exceedingly popular. The present edition, the first published in America. The style in which the series is produced, is highly creditable to the enterprise of the American publishers, and we are free to say, that the volumes are worthy of being placed in our libraries, public or private, alongside of Irving, Cooper, or Scott.—Hunt's Merchants' Magazine.

Whoever wishes to read one of the most passionate and pathetic novels in English literature will take with him, during the summer vacation, The Collegians, by Gerald Griffin. He was a young Irishman, who died several years since, after writing a series of works—novels and poetry, which gave him little reputation during his life, but since his death have given him fame, as, in our judgment, the best Irish novelist. The picture of Irish character and manners a half century since, in The Collegians, is masterly, and the power with which the fond, impetuous, passionate, thoroughly Celtic nature of Hardress Cregan is drawn, evinces rate genius. Griffin died young, a disappointed man. But this is one story, if nothing else of his, will surely live among the very best novels of the time. It is full of incident, and an absorbing interest allures the reader to the end, and leaves him with a melted heart and moistened eye. It is a very convenient and attractive edition. It will contain all his novels, dramas, and lyrics. The latter have a thoroughly Irish flavor, and will, we sincerely hope, be the means of making the talented young Irishman widely known, and, consequently, admired in this country.—Putnam's Monthly.

The works of the author in question are written in an easy, flowing style, and his sketches of character exhibit a rare knowledge of human nature—Irish human nature especially—while the descriptive portions carry with them a truthfulness and fidelity which are peculiarly charming. Many of his narratives are founded upon real incidents in Irish history which are ingeniously worked up, and rendered thrillingly exciting and absorbingly interesting. They are interspersed with scenes of the deepest pathos, and the most genuine humor—at one moment we are convulsed with laughter, at the next affected to tears—while an atmosphere of sound morality, containing many touches of true philosophy and deep reasoning, surrounds the whole, showing that the author well knew the way to the human heart. While every one who possesses true literary taste will be charmed with Griffin's works, they will be peculiarly fascinating—from the richness of the colloquial parts, the old traditions and sectional landmarks—to readers of Irish birth. We heartily recommend Gerald Griffin's works to the attention of the American public, and predict for them an immense popularity.—Sunday Dispatch.

No perfect edition of this gifted author's works has we believe, appeared up to the present time. The Messrs. Sadlier & Co. are about to supply that want, by the publication not only of the whole series of his known tales, but of several others found amongst his papers, with which the public are not familiar. They have commenced with The Collegians, that most exquisitely conceived and touching story, which at once established Griffin's fame as a writer of fiction, and raised him in the estimation of his countrymen above all who had preceded him in the delineation of Irish life and manners. To the American public, who are not very generally acquainted with the productions of such delightful writers as Griffin, Banim, Carlton, Crofton Croker, and other industrious explorers among the rich mines of Irish tradition.—New York Herald.

We thank the publishers for re-giving to the world the works of unquestionably the most gifted genius that modern Irish literature has produced. Neither Carlton nor Lever, nor Lover, nor the Banims can rank as the equals of Gerald Griffin, and yet he is almost unknown in this country. He never had the English approbatur, because a good deal of treason was discoverable in some of his writings. One work, however, of his the Collegians, is known and a favorite in this country; but the keen observation of the "Half Sir," the drollery of the "Barber of Bantry," the romantic interest of the "Aylmers of Balley Aylmer," and the "Rivals," the poetical works and the shorter prose tales of this brilliant writer, so early taken away by death, are completely novel pleasures for American readers to enjoy.

Gerald Griffin has been said to "unite the geniality and simplicity of Goldsmith with the fiery, independent manliness of Robert Burns." He achieved quite a brilliant fame before his thirtieth birthday; and then, he took off the laurel crown, assumed the cross, and, five years later, was laid down to his repose among the Christian Brothers, whose institution he had joined.—St. Louis Leader.

The high praise which has been bestowed upon the preceding numbers which have made their appearance in this country, and upon the whole aggregate of Griffin's workt by the critics of his native land, is fully warranted by the real merit and faithful finished style of the books now under consideration. They are full to repletion of human nature, history, anecdote and the customs of the time and country to which they relate. The steel illustrations are excellent. The stories are told with wild and rare vigor and piquancy, and the sonnets, interspersed here and there, by way of introduction to the narrative, are some of them, among the best in the English language. Buy, read and see if we do not speak correctly, for we speak as a friend to readers.—Daily News.

History of Christianity in China, Tartary, and THIBET, from the Apostleship of St. Thomas to the Establishment of the Mantchoo-Tartar Dynasty in China.

2 Volumes, 12mo. Cloth extra, $2 00.
" " Half morocco, 2 50.

To Abbé Huc we are indebted for most of our accurate knowledge of modern China. He traversed from one end of that great empire to the other; he was honored with special privileges and rank; he was admitted in Pekin. He saw a great deal of the interior as well as the ceremonial life of the Chinese, and his works of travels are as amusing as romances.

The name of the work before us fully indicates what it is—a well-digested, authentic, and explicit history of the difficulties which attended the introduction of the Christian Faith into China and its vicinity, and of the successes which followed. The introduction satirically contrasts our modern missions with those so often leading to martyrdom, which the Church of Rome sent from her bosom, far and wide over the world. Then commences the history, showing how, from the first, with the rest of the Magi, the Chinese ruler felt an interest in the Advent of the expected Messiah, and how rapidly, when the great sacrifice was made, the Christian Faith spread to the remotest parts of Asia—promulgated, it is believed, by St. Thomas, the Apostle, in person. The whole course of tradition is run through, and then the records of fact are given, up to the establishment of the Mantchoo-Tartar dynasty in China, on the downfall of the dynasty of Ming, in the middle of the seventeenth century:—to drive out the Mantchoo-Tartar rulers is the object of the rebellion now raging in China. The narrative, which is admirably translated, is the very romance of history, with all the accuracy of fact, derived as it is from the records of the mission in China.

At any time, such a book as this would be a valuable addition to our store of knowledge. At the present crisis, when more than one of the "outside barbarian" nations are assailing China, it is important as well as interesting.—Philadelphia Press.

M. Huc, has enjoyed opportunities of becoming familiar with the character of the people of the countries named, and also of their institutions, habits, manners, and customs, such as have seldom been bestowed on travelers through the Celestial Empire. These volumes are the result of his missionary experience in the very heart of an empire comparatively unknown, yet comprising a population of nearly one-third of the human family. Aside from its peculiar claims upon the Catholic Church, as exhibiting a self-devotion and untiring zeal in the promulgation of its religious faith, this work is of great value to the statesman, the merchant, and the philanthropist, as containing a vivid portrayal of the character of a country and people, now more than ever engaging the especial attention of the civilized world.—Hunt's Merchant's Magazine.

Perhaps there is no person so well qualified to write the history of Christianity in the countries above mentioned as the Abbé Huc, it is but a few years since that we gave the public a very entertaining and instructive account of his journey through Asia and China, which was related with a certain quaintness that invested it with a peculiar charm. Though here and there he stated as facts what to the reader might appear gross exaggerations, yet no one doubted the general truthfulness of his narrative. In the present volumes he gives a full account of the labors of the missionaries of the Church of Rome in the East, from the Apostleship of St. Thomas to the establishment of the Mantchoo-Tartar dynasty in China. These volumes contain over seven-hundred pages; they bear evidence of having been carefully prepared, and are a valuable contribution to the missionary history of the Church of which the author is a member.—N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.

The scholars and philosopher, too, who have given their attention of late years to the questions connected with China, have gradually emancipated themselves from the traditional notions, in pursuance of which it was habitually regarded as a country entirely without relations even with those eastern races by which it is surrounded.

Last of all, Father Huc has taken up carefully all the links of the chain which connect both the history and the usages of Tartary and Thibet with those of their Chinese masters; with both which subjects Father Huc may be safely acknowledged to possess an acquaintance. such as has not fallen to the lot of any European since the days of Father Ricci or Adam Schall.

"Christianity in China" may fairly be regarded as substantially a new work; and even when it goes over ground already trodden. its information will be found much more precise, more orderly, and more complete, than the necessarily brief and condensed notices which formed the great charm of the work on The Chinese Empire."—Dublin Review.

"The Abbé Huc is well known to the reading public as the author with a companion of Travels in Tartary and Thibet, and by a work on the Chinese Empire. His previous works have been read with avidity as well for the information they give of countries, tribes, institutions, manners and customs little known to the Western world, as for their intrinsic merits and personal adventures; and whatever else may be said of the author, it is certain et has the art of writing very agreeable and interesting books, and nohthe least interesting and agreeable as well as instructive of his productions is the work now before us. It contains a history of the establishment and various fortunes of Christianity in India, Tartary, Thibet, and China, from the times of the Apostles down to the present day,—a history replete with interest and instruction.

We hope to be able to return to this work, and give our readers an analysis of its valuable contents, with oome reflections on the progress of Christianity in the East."—Brownson's Quarterly Review.

"The name of the Abbé Huc has become a household word with us. From the elders of the family down to the youngest 'literate' member of it, his genial writings have been read and re-read with delight. Among the small people, according to their respective ages, he takes rank with the authors of Robinson Crusoe, and Puss in Boots; and, in truth, it is no small gift to be able to rivet the attention of children on a genuine traveller's chronicle, however full of incidents. He has found the way to their sympathies and confidence. They would rejoice at a visit from the good father, receive him as an old friend, and plague him with all sorts of questions about Samdadchiemba, whose queer name trips over their tongues as easily as Jack or Lizzie. Our own feelings towards the intrepid missionary apostolic are very much the same, only tempered by high respect and admiration for his intellectual and personal qualities. We hail with the greatest pleasure every fresh contribution to our modern literature, striking as it is in quantity rather than quality, from the pen of a man who has really something to say, and who combines French vivacity and acuteness with English solidity. We know not how M. l'Abbé would accept this description, but we mean it as the highest compliment we can pay him.

Leaving the field of personal narrative, he now presents us with a history of Christianity in China, Tartary, and Thibet. No living man is more competent to undertake so important a task; with which short but emphatic preface we shall at once address ourselves to the examination of the two volumes containing the translation of the result of his labours and research."—The Rambler.

No portion of the history of the Church is more interesting or instructive, than that which relates to the labors of her missionaries. The trials and sufferings of these holy men, the many privations and hardships which they have undergone in the cause of truth, excite our admiration, stimulate our zeal, and demand of us renewed exertions in giving aid to the cause in which they are engaged. It is, therefore, with pleasure that we behold the publication of the present work, detailing the exertions which the Church has made, even from the earliest period, to spread the light of Christianity among the Eastern nations. Few men are better qualified for this task than the Abbé Huc. His long experience in the Eastern mission, his familiarity with the language, the manners and customs of the nations of India and China, have given him facilities that few possess, and ably has he employed them.

The learned author commences the work by showing that anterior to the birth of our Divine Saviour, the oriental nations as well as those of the west, were in expectation of the coming of some extraordinary personage. Confucius had told his countrymen that a saviour would be born in the west. The Indian poet on the banks of the Ganges had sung of the Vishnu Yesu, who should come and "cause truth and justice to reign on earth;" who should restore the four castes, and after his reign all Brahmins should be holy men.—The Metropolitan.

The Life of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; or, JESUS REVEALED TO YOUTH. By the ABBE F. LAGRANGE. Translated from the French by Mrs. J. SADLIER; with the approbation of the Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York. Illustrated with 10 plates. 16mo.

Cloth extra, 50 cents; Cloth gilt, 75 cents.

"Suffer little children to come unto me!" said our Lord himself, in the fullness of his love: he wishes, then to draw their innocent hearts to himself, and it is for us to make him known to them, that knowing, they may love him; and loving, they will be sure to serve him all their life long. Let them behold him as he was when, clothed with our frail humanity, he walked amongst men, scattering blessings as he went. This little volume is, I think, well calculated to make Jesus known to the younglings of his flock. It is written in a simple, conversational style, and contains a summary of every thing relating to our divine Saviour that children ought to know. Even those who are already playing their allotted parts as men and women, on the world's stage, may derive both pleasure and profit from perusing this simple work of piety. It will happily lead them back for a time to the green pastures and the silvery waters of life's young spring, far away from the dusty highway and the crowded mart, and all the ceaseless whirl of more recent years. They will be children in heart, at least for the time; and any thing that assimilates us to children must ever be advantageous, since Christ himself tells us that, unless we become as one of these little ones, we shall have no place in his eternal kingdom.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE

The Popular Library

OF HISTORY, BIOGRAPHY, FICTION, and MISCELLANEOUS LITERATURE. A Series of Works by some of the most eminent writers of the day; Edited by Messrs. CAPES, NORTHCOTE, and THOMPSON.

The "POPULAR LIBRARY" is intended to supply a desideratum which has long been felt, by providing at a cheap rate a series of instructive and entertaining publications, suited for general use, written expressly for the purpose, and adapted in all respects to the circumstances of the present day. It is intended that the style of the work shall be such as to engage the attention of young and old, and of all classes of readers, while the subjects will be so varied as to render the series equally acceptable for Home use, Educational purposes, or railway reading.

The following are some of the subjects which it is proposed to include in the "Popular Library," though the volumes will not necessarily be issued in the order here given. A large portion of the Series will also be devoted to works of Fiction and Entertaining Literature generally, which will be interspersed with the more solid publications here named.

Fabiola; or the Church of the Catacombs.

Price.—Cloth, extra. 12mo., 400 pages, $ 75
Gilt edges, - - - 1 12

The Press of Europe and America is unanimous in praise of this work. We give a few extracts below:—

"Eminently popular and attractive in its character, 'Fabiola' is in many respects one of the most remarkable works in the whole range of Modern Fiction. The reader will recognise at once those characteristics which have ever sufficed to identify one illustrious pen."—Dublin Review.

"We rejoice in the publication of 'Fabiola,' as we conceive it the commencement of a new era in Catholic literature."—Telegraph.

"Worthy to stand among the highest in this kind of literature."—C. Standard.

"Were we to speak of 'Fabiola' in the strong terms our feelings would prompt, we should be deemed extravagant by those who have not read it. It is a most charming book, a truly popular work, and alike pleasing to the scholars and general reader."—Brownson's Review.

"A story of the early days of Christianity, by Cardinal Wiseman, is a sufficient notice to give of this volume, lately published in London, and re-published by the Sadlier's in a very neat and cheap volume."—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

"As a series of beautifully wrought and instructive tableaux of Christian virtue and Christian heroism in the early ages, it has no equal in the English language."—American Celt.

"We think that all who read 'Fabiola' will consider it entirely successful. . . . . We must do the Messrs. Sadlier the justice to say, that the book is beautifully printed and illustrated, and that it is one of the cheapest books we have seen."—Boston Pilot.

"We would not deprive our readers of the pleasure that is in store for them in the perusal of 'Fabiola;' we will therefore refrain from any further extracts from this truly fascinating work. We know, in fact, no book which has, of late years, issued from the press, so worthy of the attention of the Catholic reader as 'Fabiola.' It is a most charming Catholic story, most exquisitely told."—True Witness (Montreal.)

"It is a beautiful production—the subject is as interesting, as is the ability of the author to treat of it unquestioned—and the tale itself one of the finest specimens of exquisite tenderness, lofty piety, great erudition, and vast and extended knowledge of the men and manners of antiquity, we have ever read."—Montreal Transcript.

"As a faithful picture of domestic life in the olden time of Roman splendor and prosperity, it far exceeds the Last days of Pompeii; and the scenes in the arena, where the blood of so many martyrs fertilized the soil wherein the seed of the Christian faith was fully planted, are highly dramatic, and worthy of any author we have ever read."—New York Citizen.

M. Dupin, President of the French Academy, remarked, when awarding her the prize for virtue:—

"But there remains a difficulty, which has doubtless suggested itself to the mind of each amongst you, how is it possible for Jeanne alone to provide the expenses of so many poor? What shall I reply to you? God is Almighty! Jeanne is indefatigable, Jeanne is eloquent, Jeanne has prayers, Jeanne has tears, Jeanne has strength to work. Jeanne has her basket, which she carries untiringly upon her arm, and which she always takes home filled. Saintly woman, the Academy deposits in this basket the utmost placed at its disposal, decreeing you a prize of 3,000 francs."

"The Tales of this Author are distinguished by a skill in the delineation of character, and life-like pictures of domestic society. The present, though bearing clear marks of the same hand, is more astory of movement and incident. It is in no sense a 'religious' novel and still less a controversial one. But the progress of the story is throughout made to depend upon the practical adoption or reception of certain principles of right and wrong, so that the 'poetical justice' awarded to every body in the end is not a mere chance consequence of circumstances, but the natural result of their character and conduct. This it is which gives their chief value to books of fiction as a means for influencing the reader's mind, and this it is which will make 'The Witch' a volume fit for general circulation to an extent which can be asked for few novels.....The story is worked out with considerable ingenuity and a rapid succession of events, increasing in interest as it proceeds.....'The Witch' is a very clever story, and will suit the young as well as the old."—Tablet.

Blakes and Flanagans.

A Tale of the Times, Illustrative of Irish Life in the United States. By Mrs. J. SADLIER, Author of "New Lights, or Life in Galway." "Willy Burke," "Alice Riordan," &c. 12mo., 400 pages.

Price.—Cloth, extra, 75 cents.
Gilt edges, $1 12 "

In a recent visit to Montreal, the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Charbonnell, preaching on the education of children, paid the following high compliment to our Tale—"THE BLAKES AND FLANAGANS"—which turns mainly on that topic. His Lordship remarked:—

"On coming to town I called at a Bookstore to purchase a number of copies to bring with me to Quebec, but found that it was not yet printed in book-form. It is now being published in the AMERICAN CELT, and I would like to see it circulated by the hundred thousand."

"This compliment coming from the Bishop of Toronto, cannot be but highly valued by the gifted writer, Mrs. Sadlier.

"We cannot forbear assuring the Authoress, contemporaneous with announcement, and thus publicly, that her story has been read with the liveliest interest by our readers, and that it has elicited the most earnest expressions of respect for herself from persons distinguished in every walk of life.

"Before parting with our favorite contributor, let us add the following opinion recently expressed to us by a gifted Western clergyman! 'Mrs. Sadlier's story,' he said, 'has done more to bring home to the hearts of parents the importance of Catholic education, than any other, and all other advocacy combined.' This is extreme praise, but we will say, not undeserved."—American Celt.

"The style is excellent, thoroughly natural and unaffected, the narrative flowing, the conversations full of vivacity, and the characters well sustained. .....We cannot but wish it the widest circulation that a book can have."—St. Louis Leader.

The Life and Times of St. Bernard.

Translated from the French of M. L'Abbe Ratisbonne. With a Preface by Henry Edward Manning, D. D., and a Portrait. 1 vol., 12mo., 500 pages.

Price.—Cloth, extra, $1 00.
Gilt edges, 1 50.

"St. Bernard was so eminently the saint of his age, that it would be impossible to write his life without surrounding it with an extensive history of the period in which he lived, and over which he may be truly said, to have ruled. The Abbé Ratisbonne has, with this view, very ably and judiciously interwoven with the personal narrative and description of the saint, the chief contemporaneous events and characters of the time.

"There seems to have been in this one mind an inexhaustible abundance, variety, and versatility of gifts. Without ever ceasing to be the holy and mortified religious, St. Bernard appears to be the ruling will of his time. He stands forth as pastor, preacher, mystical writer, controversialist, reformer, pacificator, mediator, arbiter, diplomatist, and statesman. He appears in the schools, at the altar, in the preacher's chair, in councils of the Church, in councils of the State, amid the factions of cities, the negotiations of princes, and the contests of anti-popes. And whence came this wondrous power of dealing with affairs and with men? Not from the training and schooling of this world, but from the instincts, simplicity, and penetration of a mind profoundly immersed in God, and from a will of which the fervour and singleness of aim were supernatural."—Extracts from Preface.

The Life and Victories of the Early Mar- TYRS. By Mrs. HOPE. Written for the Oratorian's Schools of our Lady's Compassion. 1 vol., 12mo., 400 pages.

Price.—Cloth, extra. $ 75.
Gilt edges, 1 12.

"The interesting Tale of 'Fabiola' has made most readers familiar with the sufferings of the Early Martyrs, and desirous to know more of their history, and of the Victories which they achieved over the world. Every age, every clime, has its martyrs, for it is a distinctive mark of the Catholic Church, that the race of martyrs never dies out. And since her earliest times, a single generation has not passed away without some of her children shedding their blood for the name of Jesus. Other religious bodies may have had a few individuals here and there and at distant intervals, who have died for their opinions. But it is in the Catholic Church alone the spirit of martyrdom has ever been alive. Nor is it difficult to account for this, as the Catholic Church is the only true Church, the devil is ever ready to raise up persecutions against her, and as the Lord ever loves his spouse, the Church, he bestows upon her all graces, and among them the grace of martyrdom, with a more lavish hand than on others."—Extract from Introduction.

History of the War in La Vendée, and the Little Chouannerie. By G. J. HILL, M. A. With Two Maps and Seven Engravings, 12mo.

Cloth, extra, 75 cents; cloth, extra, gilt edges, $1 12.

This is a number of the popular Catholic Library now in course of publication by Messrs. Burns and Lambert, London, and Messrs. Sadlier & Co., in this city, and is one of the most interesting numbers of that valuable series that has as yet appeared. It is full of romantic incident, and is as exciting as any romance ever written. The author has grouped his incidents with much skill, and told his story with much grace and feeling. The public can hardly fail to appreciate it highly; and the intelligent reader will find it full of instruction as well as interest. The war in La Vendée was the war of the peasants, and a war chiefly for the freedom of religion. For the freedom of religion, the freedom of conscience, the freedom to have their own priests, and to worship God according to their own faith, they took up arms, and they did not lay them down till they had secured it. They were the true French patriots in the time of the Republic; the men who preserved fresh and living the France of St. Louis and the Crusaders, historical and traditional France, and it is not too much to say that they saved France in her darkest days, and prevented the continuity of her life from being broken by the madness and excesses of the revolution. They prove how much religion warms and strengthens patriotism, and that it can make undisciplined peasants able to cope successfully with the best drilled and appointed armies. When fighting for their religion, these half-unarmed peasants were invincible, and almost always victorious. When from a Catholic army they became a Royalist army, and acted under the direction of chiefs, who thought only of restoring fallen monarchy, they melted away before their enemies, as wax at the touch of fire, or were scattered as the morning mist before the rising sun.—Brownson's Review.

The period of the war was from '91 to '97, from the first proclamation of "the Civil Constitution of the Clergy" to the pacification, and consequent restoration of public worship under the Consulate. The scene of the war was the most Celtic region in the west of France, on both banks of the great Celtic river, the Loire. All Bretagne, parts of Maine, Anjou and Poitou, were engaged at various periods of the struggle, the largest number in arms being not less than 100,000 in every quarter of this country, while against them were sent in succession the armies of Generals Kleber, Westerman, and Hoche. On the side of the insurgents, the successive commanders were Cathelineau, D'Elbee, Henri de Larochejacquelein, Charette, and Stofflet; St. Malo, Quiberon, Nantes, Laval, Moulins, Fontenay, Thouars, and Angers, were the towns and cities lost and taken on both sides, but the citadel and nursery of the war was La Vendée.—American Celt.

Callista; A Tale of the Third Century.

By Very Rev. JOHN HENRY NEWMAN, D. D., Rector of the Catholic University, Dublin.

12mo., cloth, extra, 75 cents; cloth, extra gilt, $1 12.

The following extract is from a very long notice of the work in the Dublin Tablet:

"The story is partly interwoven with historical facts, but its author professes, at the outset, that as a whole, it is 'a simple fiction from beginning to end.' However that may be, as an instrument of conveying a real and genuine historical knowledge of the days of which it treats, in their aspect towards Christianity, it will probably remain without a rival in the literary world."

Dr. Newman is peculiarly felicitous in portraying the exceeding difficulty an old Roman Pagan had in understanding the principles and motives which governed the Christian. He could not enter into his way of thinking, could not seize his stand-point, and comprehend how a man well to do in the world, intelligent, cultivated, respectable, in the road to wealth, pleasure, distinction, honors, under Paganism, should forego all his advantages, join himself to a proscribed sect, regarded as almost beneath contempt, professing, as it was assumed, a most debasing and disgusting superstition, without intelligence, common sense, and common decency, and that too when to do so was sure persecution, and almost certain death, as a traitor to Cæsar. It was a sore puzzle to the wise heathen, it is a sore puzzle also, to the proud and self-sufficient non-Catholic even to-day, and will remain so to the end of the world. It is hard even for worldly-minded Christians to comprehend how youth and beauty can forego the world, and wed themselves to an unseen Lover, and live and suffer only for an invisible Love. The solution is found only in giving our hearts to God, and living for heaven alone."—Brownson's Review."

"The author dates this history from the irruption and settlement of the barbarous nations on the ruins of the Western Empire, and brings it down, noting events as they transpired in the succeeding ages, to the present. The author has carefully compiled the work from such resources as were within his reach, and he considered were of a reliable character."—Pittsburgh Catholic."

Ancient History.

By MATTHEW BRIDGES, Esq.

Price, 75 cents.

This volume, containing, as it does, a large amount of matter, with complete indexes, tables of chronology, &c., &c., will be found equally useful for popular reading, as a Student's Text-book, or as a manual for schools.

"This is intended by the author as a companion to the popular Modern History. The works, however, are both complete in themselves."—Pittsburgh Catholic.

"These two works are what they profess to be, and give more correct views of history than any other popular volumes we are acquainted with."—Brownson's Review.

"The two works are intended to be a Manual of ancient and modern history. The author wishes to give the reader a comprehensive and distinct idea of human events, to form for himself a judicious system of history, without depending upon others, or being obliged to swear by the opinions of other historians.

"Catholicity and heresy have a great bearing on history. Protestant writers, with precious few exceptions, pervert the facts of history according to their own ideas and notions. If you believe the great bulk of Protestant historians, all the evils of the world for the last ten or twelve centuries have originated with the Catholic Church, and of course, they substantiate their charges by making the statements recorded in other histories flow as a natural emanation from Catholic doctrines. This is their system. Take, for instance, Macaulay. See what he says of the Jesuits. He will tell you that the great doings of the society are all hinged on blind obedience. No allowance is made for the zeal, the spirit of mortification and self-denial, the virtuous habits of men who have long and practically studied the spirit of the Cross, and here become heroes of sanctity. No allowance is made for the goodness of the individual, and the holiness of the institute. Matthew Bridges has seen this clearly. Hence he has followed a much better plan, in fact the only plan, which an historian must follow, and consequently he feels 'thoroughly persuaded of the truthfulness of what he has asserted or described, after years of attention to the subject, and a laborious investigation of those matters which have been fairly controverted or intentionally misrepresented.'"—Boston Pilot.

New Books Lately Published.

Fundamental Philosophy.

By Rev. James Balmes. Translated from the Spanish by Henry F. Brownson, M. A.; with an introduction by O. A. Brownson, LL. D. 2 vols. 8vo., 1,100 pp.

Cloth, extra, ...	$3 50
Half Morocco, . . .	4 00
Half calf antique, . . .	4 50

"We consider his work the best adapted to meet the wants of the philosophical student at the present time that we are acquainted with. It takes the philosophical world where it now is, and leads it step by step up the highest regions of philosophic thought, and prepares it for the reception of philosophy in its highest, simplest and truest forms. Its style is clear, simple, precise, flowing, and elegant, and contrasts favorably with that of most philosophical writers of ancient or modern times. It is just the work the American public are prepared for, and is just the one needed to give the right direction to philosophic inquiry."—Brownson's Review.

"This book of the illustrious Spaniard was written to determine the boundaries of human science. Like Solomon, like Socrates, like all great souls, the gifted Catalan priest found his heart constantly calling on his intellect to answer, what do I know? what can I know? Of what avail is knowledge, or the pursuit of knowledge?

"If ever he had said to himself, with the wisest Pagan of antiquity, and saddest skeptic of our own times—

——'All that we know is, nothing can be known,'

if ever this cheerless and fruitless sentiment found a lodgment in his generous mind, it is certain he got bravely over it, when he attempted such a demonstration of human capacity, as is displayed in these volumes.

"We have followed his course, we have gone over his road, as a Frank of the Carlovingian times might have travelled an old Roman causeway. We see that it is; we feel that it is solid; we believe that it is safe; we have a general conviction that it came out from Rome, and leads inevitably thither; but how those difficulties of nature, of time and place, of accident and substance, of extension and will, how they were all overcome, and brought into this ample and direct scheme of human science, we have as yet but feebly and imperfectly comprehended.

"It is no vain desire to stimulate other readers that makes us, thus early, return to the mention of these two volumes. Many of those whom we have the honor to address, made their philosophical studies under scholastic advantages we never enjoyed. Others have picked up for themselves from current literature, some principles that serve them in place of a philosophy. Because the one class are our superior in learning, we have no hope to reach them, and because the other are our equals in ignorance, we do not presume to lecture them. And yet, having the opportunity to address twelve thousand minds, of various conditions, if we should not endeavor to tell them where wisdom may be had, how can we expect to escape censure and remorse?

"The whole work is divided into ten books, of which the first volume contains but three, and the second the remainder, with the notes. Book 1st treats of Certainty; Book 2d of Sensation; Book 3d of Extension and Space; Book 4th of Ideas; Book 5th of the Idea of Being; Book 6th, of Unity and Number; Book 7th, On Time; Book 8th, on The Infinite; Book 9th, On Substance; Book 10th, On Necessity and Causality. From this table alone one may see the sweep of the Catalonian eagle's wing, which followed without being wearied, whenever his eagle eye detected the object of its quest. It is impossible to read such a book in a few days, or to digest its contents in a few months. In some number of our next volume we may venture to discuss its merits. To-day we are only able to give it the usual notice due to new publications."—American Celt.

"Mr. H. Brownson has conferred a substantial service upon the English and American public, by his translation of the great work of the learned Spaniard. For, as it is well observed in the preface, "He who translates well a good book from a foreign language into his own, does a service to his country next to that of writing a good book himself;" and the translator has here given us a good English translation of an excellent book. In its English version, it has been carefully examined by the learned Dr. Brownson, who has also enriched it with a very valuable 'Introduction;' and the highest credit is due to the enterprising publishers for the handsome style in which it has been brought out. With all these advantages the work we hope will meet with an extensive circulation."—Montreal True Witness.

"The name alone of Balmes, one of the best writers and profoundest philosophers of the present century, is a sufficient guarantee of the excellence and solidity of the above-named work."—Boston Pilot.

An Elementary Greek Grammar, based ON THE LATEST GERMAN EDITION OF KÜHNER. By CHARLES O'LEARY, M. A.

Large 12mo., half arabesque, 75 cents.

The want has been generally felt of an Elementary Greek Grammar, on the modern improved system of German Grammars. This system has been taught for some years at Mount St. Mary's College, both by Professor O'Leary and others, with marked advantage to the student over the old system.

Induced by this consideration, Professor O'Leary has compiled the present treatise. The plan pursued, is that followed in teaching at the above College, which is virtually that adopted in the Grammars of which it professes to be an abridgement.

The Grammar aims at giving in a clear and brief form all the advantages of Kühner's, apart from the incidental disquisitions, numerous details, and special examples of the original.

The student is made acquainted with the laws that govern the interchange of letters, and thus furnished with a key to the forms and changes of declinable words, which in the old Grammars were matters of rote.

The structure of the verb is presented in an entirely new form, whereby it is much simplified. The syntax is an abridgement of Kühner's, by Jelf, brief and simple, so as to accord with the general object of the Grammar.

"The Professor of Greek in Mount St. Mary's College, near Cincinnati, speaks of the order, clearness, and brevity of the new Grammar in the highest terms, and thinks it destined to supersede all others now used in the schools."—Catholic Telegraph.

"The great advantage of this Grammar over the Greek Grammars heretofore in use is, that it renders the rudiments of the language much easier to learn and retain, inasmuch as they are less a multitude of isolated instances fatiguing the memory of the student than the legitimate deductions of the scientific principles of the language. We recommend the book to the examination of teachers. As far as we have had time to examine it ourselves, we have been much pleased with it."—Brownson's Review.

CARDINAL LAMBRUSCHINI'S CELEBRATED

"The style in which this volume is presented to the public does great honor to the publishers. Like all Mrs. Sadlier's translations, it is carefully and correctly translated. A MONUMENT TO THE GLORY OF MARY.

NEW AND ELEGANT ILLUSTRATED WORK!

Published with the Approbation of the

MOST REV. JOHN HUGHES, D. D.,

ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK.

Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary,

MOTHER OF GOD;

With the HISTORY OF THE DEVOTION TO HER; Completed by the Traditions of the East, the Writings of Fathers, and Private History of the Jews. By the ABBE ORSINI. To which are added the MEDITATIONS ON THE LITANY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN. By the ABBE EDONARD BARTHE. Translated from the French, by MRS. J. SADLIER.

This magnificent work of the Abbé Orsini was recommended to me by those whose judgment carries weight in such matters, as the fullest and most compendious Life of the Mother of God, seeing that it does not break off as most others do at the close of her mortal life, but follows the course of the universal devotion wherewith the Church has honoured, and does still honour, this Queen of angels and of men It shows how from age to age that devotion has grown and prospered coequal with Catholicity, and records the shrines and churches erected in every land under her invocation. It embodies the Eastern traditions concerning her, with the conclusive testimony of the Fathers; the little which is related of her in Scripture being but a faint sketch of her life.

There has been an abridgment of the first volume published in Dublin and republished here: but, as all the second volume was left out, the work in question is a small one, and has consequently, no interference with this. The second volume is, indeed, the most interesting, as it contains the Rise and Progress of the Devotion to the Blessed Virgin, and I trust it will be found a valuable acquisition to our Catholic literature. It is a labor of love for a Catholic to celebrate the praises and publish the renown of our most dear Mother, and my only regret is that the translation of this work has not fallen into better hands. Such as it is, however, it is done with the pure intention of honouring the glorious Virgin, who obtains for every one of us so many and so great blessings, and of inspiring the heart of every reader with love and gratitude to her.—Translator's Preface.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We cordially congratulate the Catholics of the United States on the appearance of a work at once so important and interesting as Father De Ligny's Life of Christ. It is already widely known and appreciated on the continent of Europe, where it has long been prized as one of the most useful of devotional works. Mrs. Sadlier, to whom the Catholics of the United States are already much indebted for her valuable contributions to our Catholic literature, has rendered Father De Ligny's work into our tongue with singular felicity, and a nice regard to the original text. The work is superbly printed, and appears in parts, at the very low price of twenty-five cents per number. The steel engravings are done in the best style of the art, and are after designs by Rubens, Vandyke, De Caisne, Scheffer, and other eminent masters of the old school. We know no Catholic publication of more general utility, and really so cheap. It has already attained a wide circulation in Europe, and we doubt not but that it wi. be soon found in every Catholic home in the new world."—American Celt.

EXTRACT FROM THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

"I respectfully lay this humble volume at the feet of the Venerable Prelates and Clergy of the United States, not as worthy of their patronage, or even of their notice, but as a mark of filial reverence and submission, and of profound and lively gratitude for their kind encouragement, and generous and uniform support of my humble labours in the cause of Catholic truth.

"I would also inscribe it to my Protestant countrymen. They will find in it many reasons why I have ceased to be a Protestant, but none I hope, for believing that I have lost any of my former interest in them, or that their welfare here or hereafter is less dear to me than ever it was. My sympathies with my fellow-men, which, perhaps, are livelier and deeper than some suppose, have been quickened and expanded, not deadened and contracted, by my conversion to Catholicity. I have said nothing in the following pages in wrath; I have spoken only in love.

"Placing this volume, though all unworthy, with devout gratitude and tender love, under the protection of our Blessed Lady, as I do myself and all my interests, I send it forth to the public, hoping that it may contain a fit word fitly spoken for some earnest mind struggling to emancipate itself from error, and to burst into 'the glorious liberty of the children of God.'

SUPERB NEW EDITIONS OF

THE HOLY BIBLE.

From the Versions of Douay and Rheims, translated from the Latin Vulgate, and diligently compared with the Hebrew, Greek, and other editions in various languages. Published with the Approbation of the Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

The Old Testament was first published by the English college at Douay, A. D. 1609; and the New Testament by the English college at Rheims, A. D. 1582. The paper is excellent, the type is large and beautiful, and it is the only new copy of the sacred volume published in this country. The proof sheets of this work have been read several times with the greatest care, and we are happy to inform those interested that a single error has not been detected, either by the Rev. clergy or editors who have examined the work. It is not necessary to enter into detail; suffice it to say, that this edition has the Table of References, Annotations, Historical and Chronological Indexes of the Old and New Testament, Table of Controversial References, comprising the scriptural texts applicable to all the principal controverted points, Table of Epistles and Gospels for all the Sundays and holydays throughout the year, and all the other tables usually contained in the sacred volume. The ILLUSTRATIONS, Twenty-six in number, several of which have been executed in London, are superior to any thing of the kind executed in this country. It has four Family Records, executed expressly for this work; and as regards the "getting up" of the work, it cannot be surpassed. In order to make this edition more valuable, it has appended to it Ward's Errata, revised and corrected from the last London Edition, to which are added the celebrated Preface by the Rev. Doctor Lingard, in answer to Ryan's Analysis; and a Vindication by the Right Rev. Dr. Milner in answer to Grier's Reply. This is very valuable to Protestants as well as Catholics, and to all those who wish carefully to examine and compare the Catholic and Protestant editions of the Bible."

Printed on the finest paper, with rules, and bound in Turkey, super extra, with rich ornamental gilding, and emblematical designs expressly executed for this work, also treble gilt clasps, morocco joints and corresponding panels, beautifully embellished after the antique style, altogether a most gorgeous Book, and well suited for a Marriage, Christmas, or Family present.

Pope and Maguire's Discussion.

Perhaps no discussion ever excited so much attention as this. Rev. Mr. Pope was an itinerant controversialist, who went about challenging the priests to come forth and defend the doctrines of their Church,—the Rev. Mr. Maguire accepted the challenge. Up to that time his name was scarcely known beyond the precincts of his parish, (which was situated in the mountains of Leitrim,) but after the discussion, "Father Maguire" became the most popular Priest in Ireland. Pope retired from the contest conscious of defeat, for he never challenged any more priests.

An Elementary History of the United STATES. By JOHN G. SHEA.

16mo. Half Roan, 25 cents.

Many books of the kind are already before the public, not a few on the same topic as this. It was, however, thought that something might be done to avoid the faults of tone or matter in some and of manner in others.

According to the rule laid down in the best Continental works on Education, the answer is always given in full explicit terms, repeating and never supposing the question. In this way the child learns and retains in its memory complete sentences, comprising each a fact worthy of recollection, and not a detached date or name. In teaching, this should also be insisted upon, and when the class begins to compose, the advantage acquired by learning to speak complete sentences, will be evinced perhaps more strikingly than in any other way.

From the plan thus adopted this little book may be read continuously from first to last, omitting the questions, and will in this way serve as a primary reader.

Benjamin; or, The Pupil of the Chris-TIAN BROTHERS. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. SADLIER. 32mo., 250 pages. Price, 25 cents.

"The selection of this story is additional evidence of the good taste of Mrs. Sadlier, and of her right Catholic feeling. Benjamin is a boy who was thrown upon the world at a very early age, and who finally turned out well. The story is intended to illustrate the ease with which a good child is corrupted by bad companions, the difficulty of winning him from evil courses, and the immense importance of a truly Christian education for the young. The system pursued by the Christian Brothers is fully vindicated in the little book. We recommend it, not only to children, but to the attentive consideration of parents." —Boston Pilot.

The Prayers, Litanies, &c., &c., have been collated with the Latin originals, wherever such works were known to exist. New and Complete Missal,

IN LATIN AND ENGLISH, with all the New Offices and the Proper of Ireland, Scotland, and the Jesuits. With engravings, and printed throughout in red and black.

This volume is a marvel of typography, and supplies a desideratum which had long been felt, viz.—an edition of the Missal for the use of the laity, with every Office for the whole year in full, clearly arranged, printed in a distinct type, and in the smallest possible compass.—The volume is 6 inches by 3½ in size, one inch thick, and weighs only 16 ozs.; by post, 16 cents. Among other characteristics of this edition, for which see the preface, a new and useful arrangement has been adopted with regard to the Epistles and Gospels. Many of these, as is well known, are used for various Masses, and in other Missals have to be sought for in different parts of the book, often causing much trouble and confusion. In the present edition all the lessons are printed together in their proper order in the second part of the volnme; so that where the reference to the Epistle and Gospel is given in the Mass for the day, the reader knows at once to turn for them to the end of the book. The whole body of Scripture contained in the Missal is thus also thrown together under one view, with a table showing the occasion on which each passage is used.

English morocco, gilt edges, $2 00.
English calf, antique edges, $2 50.
Morocco, extra, $3 00.
Beveled, flexible, red and black, $4 00.
With Clasps and Guards, $5 00.

The Way to Heaven.

A SELECT MANUAL OF PRAYERS for Daily Use, Compiled from approved Sources, with the Approbation of Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

This Manual is intended as a companion to the more complete books of devotion already existing, and is compiled upon a plan which, it is hoped, will render it generally acceptable. Such a book as "The Golden Manual," or "Garden of the Soul," comprising forms of Devotions for every occasion, as well as instructions and explanations, is of course, an indispensable companion for the devout Catholic. But, besides this, most persons feel the want of a small compact Manual, containing a selection simply of such devotions as are most frequently required. This and the larger work together, will thus be found to supply all that is generally needed, for the purposes whether of public or private devotion. And each can be used according as circumstances suggest. This Manual, as well as its more complete companion, contains it will be seen, a large number of prayers to which indulgences are attached. Such are, for the sake of convenience, distinguished by an asterisk. A more convenient arrangement has been adopted for the Ordinary of the Holy Mass, Devotions at Mass, Mass for the Dead, and Vespers. New translations of the following Devotions, now published for the first time in English, are also inserted. Way of saying the Rosary with the Beads, four different ways are given. Visits to the Most Holy Sacrament, Mysteries of the Sacred Infancy, Dwellings in the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Seven Words of Jesus on the Cross, Little Rosary of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Rosary of the Immaculate Conception, Rosary of the Seven Dolours of our Blessed Lady, Sorrows and Joys of St. Joseph, Devotions to St. Philip Neri, with a number of others.

We send this little book before the public, with the assurance that no expence has been spared to make it, with the exception of the Golden Manual, the most complete Manual published in this country.

WORKS ON IRELAND.

THE

HISTORY OF IRELAND,

Ancient and Modern.

Taken from the most authentic records, and dedicated to the Irish Brigade, by the ABBE MACGEOGHEGAN. Translated from the French by PATRICK O'KELLY, ESQ., with four fine Steel Engravings. This important national history is printed in clear type, on fine paper, with marginal lines, and has been most favorably reviewed by the American and European Press.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"Our citizens have now a most favorable opportunity of supplying themselves with the best History of Ireland extant. There are several works devoted to the subject, but some are corrupt, others bigoted, many incomplete and inaccurate. We may say of Keating, Leland, Plowden, Taylor, Moore, Smiles, &c., that their histories are defective or incomplete. Common consent seems to have fixed upon the work of the Abbé MacGeoghegan as the best. The author was chaplain of the illustrious 'Irish Brigade,' a patriotic son of Ireland, and an accomplished scholar of polished and unusual acquirements. He had the best opportunities and full leisure in the French capital for the formation of his history. It is considered a work most faithful and honest, accurate in detail, liberal, patriotic, and high-toned in sentiment, and more complete than any other History of Ireland that we possess."—Freeman's Journal.

The late lamented Thomas Davis, in an Essay on Irish History, speaks of this work as follows:—

"Well, as to this National History—L'Abbé MacGeoghegan published a history of Ireland in French, in 3 vols., quarto, dedicated to the Irish Brigade. Writing in France, he was free from English censorship—writing for 'The Brigade,' he avoided the impudence of Huguenot historians. The sneers of the Deist, Voltaire, and the lies of the Catholic Cambrensis, receive a sharp chastisement in his preface, and a full answer in his text. He was a man of the most varied acquirements, and an elegant writer. For the student of Irish History it is the best book in the world. He is graphic, easy, and Irish. He is not a bigot, but apparently a genuine Catholic. His information as to the number of troops and other facts of our Irish Battles, is superior to any other general Historian, and they who know it well need not blush, as most Irishmen must now, at their ignorance of Irish History."

The Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation.

THE RISE AND FALL OF THE IRISH NATION, by Sir JONAH BARRINGTON, one of his Majesty's counsel at law, judge of the high court of admiralty of Ireland, and member of the late Irish parliament for the cities of Tuam and Clogher. The work contains much valuable information and interesting matter never before published, sketches of the leading members of both sides who figured so conspicuously during that memorable epoch of Irish history. It also contains the red and black list, showing the bribery and corruption by which the Union was carried. The work is a handsome royal 12mo. volume of 472 pages, beautifully printed on fine paper, with portraits of the Author, Fitzgerald, Curran, Grattan, and other distinguished personages on both sides, in all 29 miniature portraits on Steel.

The above work is admitted by competent judges, to be one of the most beautiful productions of the day. It was sold in Dublin, when first published, at $10. Such is its intrinsic merits, that it has been admitted by the Superintendants of Public Schools, into the District School Libraries of the various States. No Irishman, who is desirous of becoming acquainted with that epoch of his country's history—the rise of the volunteers—the declaration of rights—and the debates connected with that tyrannous act, the Legislative Union; should fail to possess a copy of this admirable work.

Beautifully printed, large type, $2.
Imitation Morocco, embossed, comb edges, full gilt back, $1.50.
Full muslin, embossed, gilt back, $1.
Sheep, lettered, $1.

"'The Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation,' is one of the most picturesque and eloquent books in the whole range of our language. Its sketches of political scenes and characters, are, without comparison, the most life-like we know. It is a treasure of a book; one we would not exchange for any ten National books we have."—American Celt.

Valentine McClutchy.

VALENTINE McCLUTCHY, the Irish Agent; the Chronicles of Castle Cumber; together with the Pious Aspirations, Permissions, and other Sanctified Privileges of Solomon McSlime, a Religious Attorney. By WILLIAM CARLETON.

In this work Mr. Carleton has depicted the wrongs and sufferings of his countrymen—their patience and forbearance under their sufferings. And in the character of Valentine McClutchy, he shows the villany practised by the agents of absentee landlords, upon those tenants who are so unfortunate as to hold lands from them.

And as a specimen of a religious Attorney, we would challenge creation to produce a more correct picture than that drawn by Carleton of Solomon McSlime. We venture to say that there is not an Irishman, who would read ten pages of the work, that would be without it for ten times the cost.—Full muslin, embossed, gilt back, 75 cents.

Half roan, embossed, 50 cents.

P. 12 cts.

Pius P. IX.

GENTLEMEN,

I beg to thank you for the copy which you have been good enough to send me of your edition of Haydock's Bible. It is magnificent, and must, I am sure, obtain universal approbation.

I am,

Yours faithfully in Xt.,

✠ N. Card. Wiseman,

ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER.

The grand Haydock's Bible which you sent me long ago, has at last reached me. The richness of the paper, the accuracy of the print, the elegance of the engravings, and the magnificence of the binding, ought to convince all impartial Protestants either that you are very bad business-men in publishing so large and so costly a volume, or that they were imposed upon when taught that Catholics are not allowed to read the Bible. I shall ever keep your gift side by side with another precious copy of the Sacred Scriptures published in 1565.

✠ Joseph S. Alemany,

ARCHBISHOP OF SAN FRANCISCO.

I regard your splendid edition of Haydock's Catholic Bible as a real work of art, doing the greatest honor to Catholic typography in the United States; but, accompanied as it is with the useful and learned notes of the Rev. George Haydock, I see and value in it a treasure of doctrine and piety open both to the clergy and laity.

Receive, dear sir, my best respects, and I may add, the expression of my gratitude for the eminent services you have done the Church in this country.

Your ob't serv't,

✠ Aug. Martin,

BP. OF NATCHITOCHES.

TESTIMONIALS OF APPROBATION.

"The beauty, the elegance, the exquisite perfection of your magnificent edition of Haydock's Bible, honor extremely the zeal and intelligence of the publishers, and cannot be better employed than in adding dignity to the Word of God. I cannot, therefore, but highly approve your pious undertaking, and join my suffrage to the judgment which your Ordinary, the learned Archbishop of New York, has pronounced, after mature investigation, and to the praises of the other venerable Bishops of the United States: but I will especially echo the august voice of the Sovereign Pontiff, Pius IX., by offering you the most sincere felicitations on all your labors to extend the Catholic Church and increase piety, by diffusing in your country, amid Protestantism, so many edifying works.

"✠ Bartholomew Charles Romilli,

"ARCHBISHOP OF MILAN"

"I most willingly adhere to the approval of this edition of the Holy Bible, given by my Most Rev. Friend and Brother in Christ, the Archbishop of New York; and I shall not fail to recommend its use to the clergy and faithful of the Ecclesiastical province of Quebec.

"✠ P. F.,

"ARCHBISHOP OF QUEBEC."

"I return you thanks for your splendid edition of the Bible with Haydock's notes. I am happy to find that you have completed your arduous undertaking, and trust that a rapid sale will reward your noble enterprise.

"✠ Francis Patrick Kenrick,

"ARCHB'P BALT."

"I feel proud of adding my approbation to that of your illustrious Archbishop, and unite with all the Prelates and Catholics of this country, in felicitating you on the auspicious consummation of so noble an undertaking. Wishing you a long succession of years distinguished by labors and virtues, such as merited for you the letter and gold medal from the Holy Father with his Apostolic blessing,

"I remain, &c., ✠ J. B. Purcell,

"ABP. CIN."

"I cheerfully authorize you to use my name in recommending it to the patronage of the Catholics in the United States.

"✠ L. de Goesbriand,

"BP. OF BURLINGTON, VT."

Additional Approbations.

"I received with gratitude your kind letter announcing the transmission of a copy of the Holy Catholic Bible and Commentary, recently published by you. It has now arrived, and I hold the precious volume in my hands. I do not wonder that it has merited the approbation of the Holy Father, and of the Archbishops and Bishops of the United States and other places, as the work is well worthy of such approbation. I hope that by its perusal our Lord God will be more known and loved, and that the faithful will derive great utility and profit, and so far as depends on me, I shall endeavor that they do.

"✠ Antonio Maria (Claret i Clara,)

"Archbishop of Cuba."

"I beg leave to return you my most sincere and grateful thanks for your kindness in sending me a copy of your splendid edition of Haydock's Bible, in grand and massive binding.

"✠ Joseph Dixon,

"Archbishop of Armagh."

"I consider the edition of Haydock's Family Bible, from the press of Messrs. Dunigan & Brother of New York, a magnificent work. Their Catholic zeal in undertaking so expensive a publication is only surpassed by their artistic skill in its execution. The learned annotations which accompany the text make it a treasure for families, and I take pleasure in recommending it as the best and most elegant family Bible to be obtained.

"✠ John McGill,

"Bishop of Richmond."

Sandwich Islands, Honolulu, Oct. 23, 1857.

"Your Haydock's Catholic Bible is magnificent in all respects, and you may be persuaded that it has my warm and full approbation.

"Your Devoted Servant in Jesus Christ,

"✠ Louis,

"Bishop of Arathea,

"Vic. Ap. of the Sandwich Islands."

ADDITIONAL APPROBATIONS.

"Please accept my thanks for your new and unabridged edition of Haydock's Catholic Bible, and enlist my name among your subscribers, who, I sincerely hope, will be as numerous as you have unquestionable right to expect, for the unsurpassed care which you have given to this precious publication.

"I have the honor to remain,

"Your affect. serv't,

"✠ Ant.,

"Abp. of N. Orleans."

"Your edition of the Bible just issued, with the approval of your Ordinary, is one of the most beautiful editions of the sacred volume which has appeared up to the present. Accompanied, as it is, with many valuable explanatory notes, it will be acceptable to the student and occasional reader of the Sacred Scriptures.

"✠ Bernard O'Reilly,

"Bp. of Hartford."

"I shall be most happy to recommend your most splendid edition of Haydock's Bible to the faithful of this Diocese, and especially to our clergy, who, I am convinced, will find it elegant in appearance and rich in learning.

"✠ Patrick, Bp. of Carrhæ,

"Adm. Ap. of Kingston."

"Your magnificent and complete edition of Haydock's Bible received my approbation before it was commenced. It was, as I have reason to suppose, chiefly on my recommendation, that your lamented brother determined to republish it here. It is, without doubt, the most complete edition of the Holy Scriptures in English, and one of the finest specimens of printing yet put forth in this country.

"✠ James,

"Bp. of Newark."

"I sincerely congratulate you on the zeal you display in the publication of Haydock's Bible, and I am happy to add my humble approbation of an undertaking so useful to the Church, and so glorious for yourselves, to those of so many illustrious prelates, able to appreciate your work as it deserves.

"✠ Aug. M. All. Blanchet,

"Bp. of Nesqualy."

Additional Approbations.

"You may place my name among those of the other Prelates, who recommend your edition to the public.

"✠ Peter Richard,

"I greatly admire and commend your beautifully illustrated edition of the Holy Bible, with Haydock's valuable notes. Your zeal and enterprise are certainly deserving of all praise, and will, I hope, be rewarded by a widely extended patronage.

"✠ John,
"Bb. of Albany"

"Of the circulation of your edition of Haydock's Bible in my diocese, I do not mercly declare my cordial approval, but my most earnest wish, that it may find a home and readers in every family.

"✠ Richard Vincent,
"Bp. of Wheeling."

"The correctness of the edition of which yours is a reprint, and the value of the notes attached to it, are facts which need not now be proved, for they are well known to all who read the Holy Scriptures in English. The testimony of the Most Rev. Archbishop of New York, prefixed to your edition, furnishes sufficient evidence of the accuracy and faithfulness with which you have performed your part in its reproduction. If, however, you think that my approval may be of any benefit, you are free to make use of it.

"Yours respectfully,

"✠ John B. Fitzpatrick,
Bp. of Boston."

"I feel extremely anxious to see this splendid edition among the Catholics of my diocese, and I shall do every thing in my power to circulate it—at least to recommend it. It will prove a rich mine to refute the objections and remove the prejudices of the enemies of our holy religion.

"✠ James Oliver,
Bp. of Natchez."

Additional Approbations.

' I trust that the Catholic community, not only in the dioceses of Chicago and Quincy, but throughout the Union, will, whilst seeking instruction in the Book of Life, show their appreciation of your enterprise and success, in presenting to them this Holy Volume in so learned, perfect and beautiful a form.

"Bishop of Chicago."

"The recommendation of the distinguished Bishop Hughes, and the little I have read of the notes, are more than sufficient to induce me to be a patron of your important and useful new edition of Haydock's Bible. I highly approve your bold and holy work. God will reward you.

"✠ Joseph Cretin,
"Bish. of St. Paul."

"The approbation of so many distinguished prelates, without the addition of mine, which I freely give, is more than sufficient to warrant the circulation of that valuable work in my diocese.

"✠ Maurice,
"Bp. of Vincennes."

"I most heartily concur with so many of my Right Rev. Brethren in the approbation and recommendation of Ed. Dunigan & Brother's most magnificent edition of the Catholic Bible, with Haydock's notes unabridged. Notices of St. John's Manual.

This is a new, and we think will be a formidable aspirant to popularity among the host of Prayer Books now in favor. St. John's Manual is a fresh compilation, and avoids the absurdity to be found in many other prayer books, of devotions peculiar to other countries, and unmeaningly reprinted here. It is enough for the elegance of the book to say, that Dunigan & Brother have gotten it up in their best style. It is a very complete manual, and possesses many merits not shared with other prayer books.—Freeman's Journal.

We thought there was an end of prayer book-making progress. But St. John's Manual, just published by Dunigan & Brother, surpasses all its predecessors. It contains the ordinary of the Mass, Epistles and Gospels for all the festivals of the year, Devotions, Litanies, Novenas, &c., in a more convenient form—just the thing to take the eye and satisfy the devout.—Catholic Telegraph & Advocate.

St. John's Manual.—Nous devons dire que c'est l'ouvrage le plus complet en ce genre qui ait été publié dans ce pays. Sous le rapport typographique ce livre est tres remarquable; c'est veritablement un œuvre d'art. Le texte est d'une pureté et d'une élégance qui ne laissent rien à desirer. Les gravures et les frontispices sont empruntés aux meilleurs modèles.—Propagateur Catholique.

This is a new prayer book, got up expressly for the wants of the present time, and adapted to the use of the faithful in this country; the Office Books and Rituals, authorized for use in the United States, being strictly followed. It is the most complete prayer book that has been issued from the Catholic press of this country, and will, we feel confident, become the favorite of the faithful.—Pittsburg Catholic.

This is one of the most beautiful of the many fine editions of Catholic prayer books issued by this house. There are some fifteen beautifully executed engravings, and the style of printing and designs ornamental, are in good and appropriate taste. As a prayer book, St. John's Manual is destined to become a favorite. The devotional prayers are in large print, which is very desirable. There are no less than forty-seven Litanies to be found, and the other exercises are proportionally numerous.—Leader.

It is the most complete prayer b ook yet published in this country.—Boston Pilot.

This is certainly the most complete collection of devo tional exercises that has yet been published.—Catholic Herald.

This elegantly printed book is handsomely illustrated, and bound in exquisite taste.—Home Journal.

It professes to be, and really is, the best compilation known.—Irish News.

Lyra Catholica,

The most comprehensive and elegant Catholic Hymn-book printed in the English language.

This unique work is the only collection of Catholic Hymns and Devotional Poetry in the English language. It is not only a work of devotion, but one for general perusal. It comprises all the hymns of the Roman Breviary, all the hymns and sequences of the Missal, with a selection from the Breviary of Paris and Cluny, and from the Italian "Raccolta." Of these pieces, every one is newly translated by Mr. Caswell, and probably more than half of them appear in English for the first time, from his hand. Altogether, his version combines, in a very high degree, elegance, vigor, and poetical fire of thought and diction, with the still more important requisites of fidelity to the lofty religious spirit of his originals, and a most exact transfusion of their Catholic faith, fervent piety, and doctrinal integrity, and is a most valuable addition to our devotional literature.

The second part comprises a selection of Hymns and Anthems, for particular occasions of devotion, from various approved sources, viz: Archbishop Hughes, Faber, Pise, and others of the highest genius.

The third part is devoted to sacred poetry, of a less strictly devotional cast, from the compositions of writers of the most unquestioned Catholicity, genuine piety and pure morality.

Price—One vol., neat cloth, 37½ cents.

The following is a part of its contents:—

Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the various modes of saying it.

Living Rosary, Rules, Indulgences, &c.

Scapular of Mt. Carmel; its rules, indulgences.

All the other Scapulars.

THE MOST REV. JOHN HUGHES, D. D.,

The Doctrinal Catechism.

Being a new and enlarged edition of Scheffmacher's Controversial Catechism,

By the Rev. Stephen Keenan.

No controversial work is more popular in Europe, than Scheffmacher's Catechism, the master-piece of the celebrated Jesuit. A translation was much needed, but in adapting it to English readers, the Rev. Mr. Keenan has made such improvements and additions, in order to suit it to our times, that it may justly be considered a new work. In the present shape it is invaluable. It discusses every point.

Being in the form of question and answer, the best ever discovered for conveying instruction, solving objections, and expounding truths, it is peculiarly adapted for general circulation.

NOTICES.

It is well calculated for giving the inquirer an insight into the tenets and practices of the true Church.—U. S. Catholic Magazine.

It is an epitome of Controversy, in which the various controverted points are examined with great learning and judgment. It bears the impress of deep research, and shows how much the author has mastered the subject which he handles.—London Tablet.

The Controversial Catechism is a masterly instance of special pleading, and is admirably fitted both to strengthen the attachment of Catholics to their own creed, and to bring over to that mode of thinking no inconsiderable number of those who, calling themselves Protestants, are yet but partially informed as to the reason of their hope.—Macphail's Ecclesiastical Magazine.

The Poor Man's Catechism; Or, the Christian Doctrine Explained, with short Admonitions.

By the Rev. John A. Mannock, O. S. B.

No commendation is needed of this well-known and highly approved Catechism. The multiplied editions of it wherever English is spoken, are a sure index of its worth. As is well known, it is not merely a Catechism, but a book of excellent instructions and exhortations on the various points.

THE EIGHTH EDITION OF

Kirwin Unmasked.

A Review of Kirwin, in Six Letters.

Addressed to the Rev. Nicholas Murray, D. D., of Elizabethtown,

By the Most Rev. John Hughes, D. D.,

ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK.

These letters appeared originally in the New York Freeman's Journal, and are now republished in book form.

They are marked by all the clearness of language, felicity of illustration, and closeness of logic, which invariably characterize the productions of the distinguished author, and possess the additional merit of treating the subject in the most easy and familiar style. It is admirably adapted for circulation among all who lack either the time or inclination for reading more extensive volumes.

Price—6¼ cents, or 50 cents per dozen.

NOTICES.

In these letters the Rev. Nicholas Murray is exhibited to the public in a very unenviable light, and is lashed with the power and sarcasm which he well deserves.—United States Catholic Magazine.

It is probable that Mr. Murray designed to get into a religious controversy with Bishop Hughes, and from being thus made the champion of his own portion of Protestants, to elevate himself by the controversy. The American Bossuet had already annihilated the best champions of the Protestant cause, and could not well stoop to argument on religious matters with one such as these valuable letters show Mr. Murray to have been.—Truth Teller.

Growing out of the recently enacted Church Property Bill, with an introduction by the Most Rev. Archbishop of New York.

"The controversy growing out of the Church Property Bill in this State possesses more than a transitory interest. * * * * Let no one imagine that this a war against Archbishop Hughes; it is a crusade against theCatholic Church."—Citizen.

"The right of every citizen to possess his own property to the full, that is with the right of alienation to any other citizen, and for any purpose—the right of religious communities to regulate their own organization and to hold property honestly obtained for religious purposes—the usurpation of the State in confiscating to itself and giving it to corporations—the spirit of this legislation, aggressive against a single sect and too cowardly to name it—the permanence of written consitutions were all involved in the question."—*Albany Eve. Printed from the last edition, revised by the author. 1 vol., 12mo. With the Apostolical Tree.

Eucharistica; or, A Series of Pieces,

Original and Translated, on the Most Holy and Adorable Sacrament of the Eucharist.

By the Most Rev. Wm. Walsh, D. D.

The Blessed Sacrament, the keystone of Catholic faith and worship, is no less the source of true piety. A Eucharistic Manual, whence we may from day to day draw new motives of fervor, cannot but be most acceptable, when we reflect that the Visits of St. Liguori is almost the only one accessible to English readers.

The name of the Metropolitan of Halifax is such a guarantee of the present work, that no encomium is needed.

It is both doctrinal and devotional, and contains many articles of exceeding value. Here in a small compass the Catholic will find treatises on the Real Presence, the Adoration of the Eucharist, the Mass, the Altar, the Sacred Heart, Corpus Christi and its procession. In addition to this, we have Bourdaloue's Instruction on Communion, and Bossuet's Instructions for First Communion, with a Memorial to preserve its fruits; and besides all this, devotions and pious readings for the time of approaching the Holy Sacrament.

In this excellent selection of devotions are the Eucharistic Week, the Rosary of the Blessed Sacrament, Prayers for Mass, the Litany, Psalms and Hymns adapted to those happy moments, or to times devoted to the honor of the Sacrament.

The Practice of Christian and Religious Perfection.

By Alphonsus Rodriguez,

OF THE SOCIETY OF JESUS.

This invaluable work, the treasure of Seminaries, and religious houses of every order, so justly styled the "daily bread" of the novice in the ways of perfection, is not less valuable for every Christian family. It is written with a knowledge of the heart, an unction and power rarely equalled. The Saints of the later centuries have been lavish of praises on the work of Rodriguez. St. Francis de Sales and St. Alphonsus Liguori, those consummate masters of the Spiritual life, are alone sufficient to stamp it with the seal of worth. 3 volumes, 8vo., cloth.

NOTICES.

The present edition, the only one now published in this country or in England, is by far more accurate and convenient in form than any which preceded it.—Dublin Tablet.

In its present cheap and convenient form, it will be hailed as a valuable accession to an increasing stock of Catholic works published here.—Truth Teller.

These volumes are not only most creditable to the publishers, for their elegant and convenient shape, but are indispensable in a Christian library.—Western Tablet.

The Conversion of Marie Alphonse Ratisbonne.

The original narrative by Baron Theodore de Bussieres.

EDITED BY THE REV. WM. LOCKHART, OF THE ORDER OF CHARITY.

This narrative of one of the most wonderful miracles of Our Lady, cannot but be most acceptable to the Catholic community. The zealous labors of the Rev. Mr. Ratisbonne since his conversion have made him a new proof of the authenticity of the account.

REMARKS OF THE PRESS.

Get this little book and read it. It is the simple and authentic narration of one of the most signal miracles which God has wrought through our Immaculate Mother—His Immaculate Mother. We wish it might be circulated by hundreds of thousands.—Leader.

Whatever sceptics may say, this fact is patent—that Mr. Ratisbonne was, like St. Paul, a Jew; and that, like St. Paul, he was suddenly converted to Christianity. We have here an effect; we must therefore admit a cause. To those who question Mr. Ratisbonne's account of that cause, we would reply in the words of the man born blind, "One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see."

VI. HISTORICAL WORKS, BIOGRAPHY, TRAVELS, &C.

A Most Magnificent Work,

NEVER YET SURPASSED BY THE AMERICAN PRESS.

The Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of her chaste spouse St. Joseph, and holy parents St. Joachim and St. Anne.

Specially approved by the MOST REV. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

The Life of the Blessed Virgin by Monsignore Emidio Gentilucci, Chamberlain of Honor to His Holiness, dedicated to and honored with the suffrages of POPE PIUS IX.

The Life of St. Joseph, by Father Ignatius Vallejo, a Mexican Jesuit of the last century, a fellow-countryman, religious and exile of the Clavegeros, Abads, and Hervas, received a Roman approbation and has been frequently reprinted.

The Lives of St. Joachim and St. Anne are by the Jesuit Father Binet, with notes by Father Vallejo.

Inducement.

Each subscriber to this splendid work will receive with the last number a magnificent steel engraving, suitable for framing, of the MOST REV. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

The work is published in twenty semi-monthly parts at twenty-five cents each. Every number contains forty-eight pages of letter-press, with borders, vignettes, and tail pieces of exquisite finish, and one fine steel engraving.

Notices of Gentilucci's Life of the Blessed Virgin.

This work bears the imprimatur of the Archbishop of New York. It was published originally in Italian, we believe in 1848, and dedicated to His Holiness Pius IX., who "in the outset of his priestly career, in the exercise of the holy ministry, in the distant regions of America, or in the episcopal see of Spoleto and Imola, or finally in the chair of St. Peter, has always so ardently propagated devotion to the Immaculate Mother of God." The work having received the approbation of His Holiness himself, as well as of the illustrious Archbishop Hughes, it only remains for us to say that it appears to be gracefully translated into our language, and the style in which it is produced is really superior both as to general appearance, and as to the chasteness of the design and execution of the illuminated borders which adorn every page of the work.—London Weekly Register & Catholic Standard.

We have great pleasure in commending the good taste and excellent effect of the embellishments, the good quality of the type and paper, and the correctness of the printing.

The original work is dedicated to the Holy Father, and is a perfect treasury of all that can be collected out of the Scriptures and the Fathers, about our Blessed Lady. It is the offering of a tender and affectionate son and subject to the Mother of God, the Queen of heaven.—Dublin Tablet.

Gentilucci's Life of the Blessed Virgin, translated from the Italian and apparently well translated, is in course of publication by Messrs Dunigan & Brother. The work is by an eminent author, is dedicated by permission to His Holiness Pius IX., and is spoken of in very high terms by competent judges. It is elegantly printed on fine paper, and finely illustrated with several wood-cuts and a fine steel engraving for each number. As far as we have seen it, we like it very much, and think it must prove a great favorite with the children of Mary and all devout Catholics.—Brownson's Review.

A work that must and will be read with interest and profit.—Metropolitan.

A very admirable specimen of typography and the illustrative art. The work itself is highly spoken of by those in whose capacity to form a just opinion on the subject, we have the fullest confidence.—Irish News.

Sous le rapport typographique MM. Dunigan se sont surpassés. Chaque livrasion est enrichie de gravures, et celles qui ornent la première livraison sont superieures à tout ce que nous avons vus ici.—Propagateur Catholique.

Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God:

Taken from the Traditions of the East, the Manners of the Israelites, and the Writings of the Holy Fathers. From the French of M. L'Abbe Orsini,

By the Rev. Patrick Power, D. D.

This translation from the French of the Abbe Orsini, who collected his facts from traditions of the East, the manners of the Israelites, and the Writings of the Holy Fathers, is written in a peculiarly graceful and felicitous style. The most prominent events in the life of the Blessed Virgin; her seclusion in the gorgeous temple of Solomon; her laborious life in the picturesque village of Nazareth; her sufferings on Calvary; her wanderings with St. John, and death at Ephesus, are brought before the mind with more than the vividness of painting. 16mo.

NOTICES.

This is truly a beautiful book. Its typography, and binding, and frontispiece (with a plate of the Blessed Virgin and Child, in the new or Christian style), wou d do honor to any work.—Charleston Catholic Miscellany.

This is an opportune book, which has given us much pleasure. It conveys a holy and lovely idea, and we can be certain that some such life as this the Blessed Virgin must have led, according to the circumstances related of her by a constant and harmonious tradition.—London Tablet.

This is a work of European reputation, and has received the highest testimonials of approbation from authorized judges.—London Rambler.

It is a valuable and charming volume, replete in every part with learning and eloquence of the most captivating description.—Catholic Herald.

Aspirations of Nature.

By I. T. Hecker,

AUTHOR OF "QUESTIONS OF THE SOUL."

This work claims the attention of all who, brought up to no definite religious belief, seek one; of all who, finding that of their childhood repugnant to reason, seek one commensurate with the wants of human nature; in fine, of all who, deeming religion a failure, seek to satisfy the aspirations of nature in associations for the relief or improvement of humanity at large.

1 vol., 360 pages. Neat English Cloth, - - - - - 75 Cents.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

This work is evidently from the pen of a profound thinker—a close and clear reasoner. It displays deep theological research, and great literary excellence. There is no unnecessary spinning out of details or sentences. Having said all that is necessary on the branch of the subject under discussion, he very properly leaves it to the consideration of the reader, and the other questions are then disposed of in the same able and agreeable manner. He argues his case ably and temperately, without giving offence to the members of any other religious denomination. He reasons without recriminating,—convinces without offending.—Irish News.

This may be styled a metaphysical treatise, with a religious motive. In conception and execution it partially realizes a plan which had been formed by Fenelon, but never carried out. To present Religion under a philosophical aspect, and to reconcile the struggles of rationalism with the teachings of Christianity, is an object worthy of the pen of any writer. Mr. Hecker, if he has not accomplished his task, has made a great step towards it.—New York Herald.

"Aspirations of Nature" will prove itself to be of real and great value to the mass of thinking men of the present day, and will probably prove itself also, to the interior conviction of every one who seeks to obey the teachings of reason, the instructive aspirations of a devout nature, and the precepts of a revealed religion, to be a sincere counsellor.—Daily News.

History of the Life and Institute of St. Ignatius Loyola,

FOUNDER OF THE SOCIETY OF JESUS.

Translated from the Italian of Bartoli,

By Madame Calderon de la Barca,

Authoress of "Life in Mexico," &c. 2 volumes, small 8vo.

Price—English cloth, . . . $2 25

The works of Bartoli have long been esteemed as classics in Italy, for the beauty of their style and the genius of the author. His Life of St. Ignatius is not a mere biography of the Saint: it is a full history of his order, in its foundation, rise, spirit, and progress. It is, therefore, an historical work of rare value, presenting to Catholic readers, we may say, the only accessible account of the rise and institute of the Society of Jesus. The translator is one well known to the American public, no less for her literary talents, than for her many amiable qualities.

Notices of the Press.

"An excellent version of this narrative of the life of the energetic founder of the Society of Jesus."—Literary Gazette.

"The history of Ignatius and his wonderful order is told with great simplicity and eloquence in these volumes."—Daily News.

"At the present moment when the evils and the danger of Jesuitism are so loudly descanted upon by a certain faction of our free and enlightened fellow-citizens, would it not be well to fall back upon first principles and study in these volumes the purport, the significance, and power of the Society which Ignatius organized?"—U. S. Review.

"Few writers of the Italian language have equalled Father Bartoli in classical purity and beauty of style. This biography of the founder of the Society of Jesus charms and interests, while it edifies and instructs the reader."—Brownson's Review.

"The publication of this work fills a space which has been left too long unoccupied in the Catholic Literature of America."—Catholic Mirror.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

We trust that ere long this book will be in the hands of every Catholic reader. Few have any idea of the immense labor expended on it, or of the advantages its compilation will afford the student. The authors deserve well of our community, and their approbation should be marked.—Truth Teller.

As was remarked by the illustrious Archbishop of New York, in a complimentary speech on the eve of Mr. De Courcey's departure for France, an example to others in like circumstances of what they might and may do in a manner similar.—Freeman's Journal.

The Convert; or, Leaves from My Experience.

By O. A. Brownson, LL. D.

"The volume here offered to the public is no work of fiction, and the person who gives an account of himself is no imaginary person, around whom I have chosen to weave passages from my own experience. My purpose has been to render to all who take an interest in the matter, an account of my conversion to Catholicity, and to enable the curious in such matters to discover the connecting link between my past and my present life, in order to enable them to discover the connecting link between nature and grace, the natural and the supernatural, and to perceive that in becoming a Catholic a man has no occasion to divest himself of his nature, or forego the exercise of his reason."—Author's Preface.

Price—1 vol., cloth, 450 pages, - $1 25

The present volume, though not purporting to be an autobiography, challenges an unusual interest from the peculiar intellectual history of the writer, and the prominent place which he has held for many years in the literary and religious developments of the country. The literary execution of this work, like all the productions of Mr. Brownson's pen, exhibits a native aptitude for composition, and a vigorous simplicity of expression, in keeping with the masculine energy of his logic.—N. Y. Tribune.

Something added to the sum of human knowledge—the product of a great brain and a great heart—something to make the age pause in its heedless career and sit still and learn its lesson like a docile school boy—something stamped with years of patient meditation and profound reflection. No sham—no counterfeit—but good, sound, genuine metal, with a clear, true ring. Such a book is now before us—such a book is The Convert; or, Leaves from My Experience, by O. A. Brownson.—Catholic Mirror.

Written in that clear, forcible, and logical style for which the author is so remarkably preëminent.—Irish News.

It is written with simplicity and frankness, and will interest every reader.—Courier and Enquirer.

The name of the author, the subjects treated of, and the different questions discussed, in a word, its own intrinsic merits, will secure for it a wide circulation wherever the English language is spoken.—Pittsburg Catholic.

In his (Dr. Brownson's) book, the Protestant reader, no less than the Roman Catholic, will find a running commentary upon the sects which have arisen in the country for the last half century, interspersed with a brief sketch of the several leaders.—Emerson's Magazine.

The History of Ireland, from its earliest King to its last Chief.

By Thomas Moore, Esq.

Author of Irish Melodies, &c.

This work of Erin's great poet will always be admired as the noblest of his prose writings, a work prompted by his love of country, and carried out despite the feeling that some other should have attempted it. OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The history of Ireland is in our opinion by far the best written of all Moore's prose works.—Dublin Review.

High Church and Low, Puseyites and Evangelicals, and all the workings and results of the present remarkable movement, which divides and must destroy Anglican Protestantism, supply a subject of the utmost interest. The process by which the principal characters are conducted, some to the truth, others confirmed in error, is delineated with a force of style scarcely surpassed in any other similar work.

Fashion; or, Siska Van Roosemael.

From the Flemish of HENDRIK CONSCIENCE. 18mo. With thirty-five illustrations.

Fashion is a Domestic Story, marked in a high degree by the auther's peculiar humor, pathos, and power of description.

The point of the story is directed against the frivolities of modern fashionable life, and the folly of imitating them. The interior of the good old Flemish burgher's family is sketched with inimitable freshness and vigor.

Little Frank; or, A Painter's Progress: and What a Mother can Endure.

From the Flemish of HENDRIK CONSCIENCE. 1 vol. 18mo., profusely illustrated.

"Frank, or a Painter's Progress," the first of his Tales, is also one of his most interesting and effective. The story is simple and touching, and abounds in lessons of the domestic virtues. Has the merit of being the actual history of the early struggles of one of the first of living Belgian artists.

"What a Mother can Endure," is a shorter story, with a beautiful and striking moral, and contains passages of social suffering and patience hardly surpassed by any modern work of fiction.

Price—Cloth binding, . . . 0 37½

NOTICE.

These charming Tales of Hendrik Conscience which are now for the first time presented to the American public, are deservedly famous all over Modern Europe. His Tales of Domestic Life have long enjoyed the same rank in Belgian Literature which those of Miss Edgeworth have among English readers, with this favorable difference, that his productions are distinctly Christian in their morality.

"This beautiful French story is adapted to American life from the original. It will be found amusing and instructive."—Catholic Teleg.

Chateau Lescure; or, The Last Marquis.

An admirable tale, by an eminent American writer: portraying with all his intense interest, and vivid coloring the fearful scenes of the French Revolution, the gallant struggles of the Vendeans, and the persecutions of the faithful in those days of trial.

Price—Neat cloth binding, gilt back, . 0 38

Blind Agnese; or, The Little Bride of the Blessed Sacrament.

Few tales in our language can compare with this sweet and delightful dream, none, perhaps, surpass it. There is so much grace, devotion, and interest blended, that the mind is absorbed to the close, without perceiving it.

Home Library.

The Three Eleanors.

By the Authoress of "The Hamiltons."

The rare merit and ability of the previous work of this gifted lady have been acknowledged in Great Britain, where it has been republished. The present tale is inferior to it in none of its attractive features and will amply repay perusal.

Lizzie Maitland.

By Mrs. D. W. C. Clarke.

EDITED BY O. A. BROWNSON, L.L. D.

This charming Tale of American Life cannot but please the public, when it has found a sponsor in the person of the great critic, who says in his Introduction, "I think no one can read the story without awarding the writer great purity of intention, superior ability, and a warm, fresh heart, free from sentimentalism, and alive to every thing true, beautiful, and good.

Price—Cloth, . . . 63 cents.

The sterling thought, undisciplined ability, genuine Catholic zeal, and ardent love of all that is good, that appear throughout the work, disarm criticism.—Catholic Telegraph & Advocate.

We again recommend "Lizzie Maitland" to our readers as a volume which will while away an hour in an agreeable manner, and leave behind a wholesome impression.—Halifax Catholic.

Ailey Moore, a Tale of the Times.

Showing how evictions, murder, and such-like pastimes are managed, and justice administered, in Ireland, together with many stirring incidents in other lands.

By Father Baptist.

Two volumes, cloth, ... 75 Cents.

The title tells sufficiently the scene in which this stirring tale is laid —that land where Eviction and Souperism are making their last assault on the souls and bodies of the descendants of the ancient possessors of the soil. It is none the less seasonable for the clear distinction drawn between the would-be grievances of the Red Republicans of Europe and the real grievances of the Irish people. Indeed, "Ailey Moore" would furnish the King of Naples with a beautiful appeal to the English Government to reform the abuses of its own home administration.

NOTICE.

"The scope of the book is to show what wonderful effects true charity, guided by true religion, has to unite in the bonds of Christian love the various classes of society. There is in the breasts of all a chord of love and sympathy which may be reached by their fellow men. And it is only to Christian charity that this chord will respond in unison. This is what Father Baptist seeks to impress upon his readers, and his story, so persuasive, so true to life, is the best proof that he could offer his readers. It is a perfect model of a religious romance. We can safely recommend 'Ailey Moore' to our readers as one of the best Catholic tales that has been issued for some time."—U. S. Catholic Miscellany.

The Prophet of the Ruined Abbey; or,

A Glance at the Future of Ireland. Founded on the Prophecies of Culmkill.

By the Author of "The Cross and the Shamrock."

1 vol. 12mo. Price—Cloth, gilt, 50 cents.

NOTICES.

"It contains passages that every reader must admire, for their rare beauty and genuine pathos."—Brownson's Review.

"Let who will complain of the incident, plot, or end. We don't They bring relief. We are glad that the writer of this book has dashed away at random, flinging all minutiæ to the winds."—Irish American.

My Trip to France.

By the Rev. J. P. Donelan.

This lively and sketchy book of travels by an American Clergyman, already favorably known to the literary world, is of course from an American Catholic point of view, and has received a most favorable reception.

1 vol. 12mo. Price, - - - - - 75 Cents.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The style is lively, the anecdotes abundant, and it compares favorably with the best books of tourists in that country that we meet with.—Freeman's Journal.

Mr. Donelan is a capital cicerone. He takes his reader with him wherever he goes; and by a happy dramatic faculty makes him a willing companion of his journeyings and his sight-seeings.—Rock Islander.

A pleasantly written account of a tour through France, by a clergyman of a cultivated and liberal mind.—Herald.

The author's animated descriptions of the Churches, Convents, and public buildings of Paris, and other scenes of his travel, are accurate and well done.—Metropolitan.

Dramas.

By Charles James Cannon.

AUTHOR OF "THE POET'S QUEST," "THE CROWNING HOUR," "MORA CARMODY," "HARRY LAYDON," "FATHER FELIX," ETC.

CONTENTS.

1. The Sculptor's Daughter.
2. Dolores.
3. Better Late than Never.
4. The Oath of Office.

1 vol. 12mo. Price, - - - - - 75 Cents.

These dramas are all of more than average merit. They contain many very fine passages; the portraiture and working of the plot are good in the main, and every one of them might be made successful on the stage.—Daily News.

"The Sculptor's Daughter" has many scenes of power, the characters are well drawn and individualized,—but "The Oath of Office" will be the favorite, from the tragic interest of the piece.—Metropolitan.

Read as Dramatic Poems, without any view to the stage, they possess considerable merit. "The Sculptor's Daughter," perhaps the best of them, contains several fine passages, and the characters of the Father and Daughter are happily conceived.—Brownson's Review.

The Practical Spelling Book.

By Charles James Cannon.

This book is unhesitatingly offered as the best speller published, not only for fineness of paper and clearness of type, but for the admirable manner in which the lessons are graduated so as to overcome all the various difficulties. Teachers who have used it, agree that it renders the progress of the learner sure and rapid, while the beautiful maxims of St. Vincent of Paul, and St. Philip Neri, form admirable little reliefs from the monotony of spelling.

12mo. half bound, 168 pages. Price—12½ cents.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

We have not seen any elementary work which struck us as so admirably adapted to the purpose of giving children a thorough understanding of the nature and rules of language, as this PRACTICAL SPELLING BOOK; for truly practical it is. It does not attempt to follow the modern fashion of seeking "The Royal Road to Knowledge," but aims to give the child a thorough understanding of ideas, rather than merely to learn words by rote. We strongly commend it to the examination of teachers and those interested in the education of youth.—Rahway Advocate.

Lessons for Young Learners. Nos. 1 & 2.

To supply a want long felt and acknowledged—the want of School Books of a national character and a true Catholic Spirit—the subscribers have been urged to the present undertaking; and intend, under the above title, to publish a series of works designed for elementary instruction. Of this series, No. 1 and No. 2 are now ready; and in these it will be perceived that, while great pains have been taken to assist the learner in his attempts at mastering the rudiments of knowledge, the compiler, who is a Catholic gentleman of many years' experience in teaching, has endeavored to sow in the young mind the seeds of religion, which, it is hoped, will one day produce an abundant harvest of Christian virtues, without which all knowledge would be in vain.

Lessons for Young Learners. No. I.
18mo. Price—Strong paper, 6¼ cts.
" " " No. 2.
18mo. Price—Half bound, 12½ cts.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

There was long a want seriously felt in the Catholic community in consequence of the difficulty, we may say impossibility, of placing in the hands of Catholic children any school-book in general use, entirely free from attacks on their religion and insults to their faith. The above books, containing reading and spelling lessons, are of an Educational Series intended to supply this want; and as parents must provide school-books for their children, it becomes a duty to give the preference to those especially provided for them; and in doing so nothing is lost, but much gained: for, apart from other considerations, and viewed only as school-books, these are inferior to none, and far superior to the majority now in use.—Pittsburg Catholic.

These two books of Lessons for Young Learners are not only admirably adapted for their purpose, as books of elementary instruction, by their good system, clear rules, and gradual progress from the easy to the difficult, but they are invaluable for their Catholic tendency—Prayers, Passages of Scripture, Portions of Bible History, narrated in a way to suit the capacity of children. Exquisite Hymns, Wood-cuts that combine good taste with piety, all conspire to impress strongly upon the young mind veneration for their religion.—Charleston Mercury.

We take pleasure in recommending them to the favorable attention of those who preside over schools and academies. The arrangement is of a very practical character, and thoroughly Catholic—precisely the book needed for the instruction of Catholic children, and to make elementary education truly Christian in character.—Catholic Mirror.

History of the Bible.

By the Right Rev. Dr. Challoner, D D.

This work, like all Bishop Challoner's writings, is remarkable for clearness of style, vividness of expression, and that exactness of arrangement so admirably calculated to facilitate the instruction of youth, and which renders this the best History of the Bible for the use of schools extant. 18mo.

Outlines of History.

For the use of Schools and Academies.

By Pierce C. Grace, Esq.

This book has been selected and adopted by the Christian Brothers, as the most fit and useful history for the instruction of their pupils; and although compiled in America, has been republished and introduced into many of the Catholic Schools in England and Ireland, and the publishers are confident that it will be found superior to most of the books now in use; for while in simplicity of arrangement and conciseness of expression it is hardly inferior to any book of the kind in the English language, the Catholic spirit which pervades the whole prevents those contradictions between the facts stated, and the strange opinions they are made to support, so apparent in most of the histories intended for the use of Schools. 18mo.

A School History of the United States,

From the earliest period to the present time. By JOHN G. SHEA, "Author of the Discovery of the Mississippi," "History of the Catholic Missions," etc.

This new and Enlarged School History is a sequel to Mr. SHEA's Catechism of the History of the United States, and will form an excellent reading book for Catholic Schools, while the questions at the bottom of each page fit it admirably for a Class-book.

From his known merits as a historian, and his experience as a teacher, the publishers confidently offer it, not only as the cheapest, but also as the best and most reliable History of the United States in the market. 1 vol. 12mo. 288 pages. Price—31 cents.

Approbations.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE, Sept. 2, 1855.

Your history will be introduced into the College, and will have, we trust, the influence the good desire for studious youth.

TO CATHOLIC INSTITUTIONS.

DUNIGAN & BROTHER invite the attention of Catholic Educational Establishments to the foregoing Catalogue. The constant patronage of the Bishops and Clergy, as well as of most of the Catholic Colleges, Convents and Schools, has enabled them so to extend their arrangements as to offer the greatest facilities in the country for supplying Catholic Institutions with School-books, Stationery, and all other requisites.

They deem it unnecessary to enlarge on the convenience and economy of ordering all from one store, as it is generally known that their house supplies all publications in the market at the lowest wholesale rates.

The History of Ireland, from its earliest King to its last Chief.

By Thomas Moore, Esq.

Author of Irish Melodies, &c.

This work of Erin's great poet will always be admired as the noblest of his prose writings, a work prompted by his love of country, and carried out despite the feeling that some other should have attempted it. In themselves, these inestimable volumes are the most graphic and readable history of Ireland in the language, and of such historic value that they are frequently cited in even such works as O'Donovan's Annals of the Four Masters.

2 vols. 8vo. Price—$4 00

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The history of Ireland is in our opinion by far the best written of all Moore's prose works.—Dublin Review.

In point of historical feeling for the country, we consider Moore much more Celtic than either O'Connell or Sheil. Neither one nor the other of those illustrious agitators could have conceived the missionary chapters of the first volume of his history.—American Celt.

"The Wheeler & Wilson machine has secured and justly maintains the pre-eminence or sewing every kind of material. It works equally well upon silk, linen, woollen, and cotton goods; seaming, quilting, gathering, hemming, &c., with a strength and beauty superior to any hand-work."—N. Y. Express.

"The sewing machine promises permanent relief to the wearisome bondage of the sewing woman. Its celerity is incredible. Each one of Wheeler & Wilson's is calculated to do the work of ten ordinary sewers. Women's powers, whatever their cultivation, are unable to compete either in rapidity, precision or finish; from one to two thousand stitches per minute is not unusual. On shirt bosoms the number per minute is about fifteen hundred."—Journal of Commerce.

"The Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines are the principal supply of the vast demand of the fashionable world."—Daily News.

It cannot be ravelled or ripped and forms a seam alike on both sides of the fabric sewed, with great economy of thread, more firm, durable and beautiful than hand-sewing."—Family Magazine.
